FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I believe College Church's response to the COVID pandemic has been an on-going effort in making lemonade out of lemons. The on-going challenges we face has required a certain adaptability. We have become experts at finding new and creative ways to deal with our uncertain times.

Thus, we have Ministry Month not our usual Ministries Sunday. Because we cannot cram into the ballroom for a single extravaganza of parish ministries, we are spreading the wealth the entire month of October. This will enable us to take a deeper dive into the many, many good works going on at SFX. Why limit ministry to a single Sunday when we can celebrate for 31 days? In other words, enjoy some ice-cold lemonade!

I would encourage everyone to consider how you might share in ministries of the parish. We have been reflecting on the participation and co-responsibility of every single Catholic for the Church's mission. This does not mean one needs to volunteer for 16 different ministries. But it does mean all are engaged. Whatever your gifts and talents are they can help us better proclaim the Kingdom of God.

St. Paul was fond of reminding the various churches of the innumerable and necessary gifts that the Holy Spirit bestows. No one is lacking and every gift is needed. I know that is the case at College Church. Thank you for your generosity.

October is Ministry Month

This Sunday, in the announcements after the 10:30 am Mass, Jasmine Brown from our Outreach Program and Bridget Brennan from the Pastoral Care Commission will give short introductions about their ministries. In the back of church at every Mass there will be a table with a sign-up sheet if you'd like more information or would like to become more involved.

Listen in as each ministry is described, because the speakers will be saying a "secret word" each Sunday. As soon as you hear it, email Angela Pancella at angela@sfxstl.org to be entered into a drawing for a prize! The prize drawing will take place at the end of October.

Our Leadership Transition: Becoming a more Synodal Church

A Call to Discernment

This change is a watershed moment in the history of our parish, and one that calls for new forms of engagement. Pope Francis has reminded us that we should be a Church whose members, clergy and laity both, are discerning our direction; a Church in which each person's potential is recognized and their contributions fully valued; a Church in which we all participate fully.

To that end, we are inviting everyone to consider attending a house meeting. In these meetings, we want to talk in more detail about what the transition means or may mean, to hear your honest reactions, and to gather input on how you and other parishioners can guide College Church through this transition. We hope by meeting as small groups, we can begin to be the Church we hope to become--one in which our lay members take an active role in discernment about our future.

SIGN UP FOR A HOUSE MEETING
<https://forms.gle/6oKd7qauSC2iweFL8>

From the Preparatory Document for the global Synod on Synodality:

The Church of God is convoked in Synod. The path entitled "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission" will solemnly open on the 9th – 10th of October 2021 in Rome and on the following 17th of October in each particular Church.

Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission. Our "journeying together" is, in fact, what most effectively enacts and manifests the nature of the Church as the pilgrim and missionary People of God.

THE IGNITE CAMPAIGN

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER (COLLEGE)
CHURCH

Ignite is the theme of our new fall fundraising campaign, which takes the place of a gala this year.

Ignite calls to mind the way one candle flame can light another, and it also reminds us of the name St. Ignatius. In our support of this parish, we are living into our call to become a synodal church, walking together toward our common goals.

On our website, <https://sfxstl.org/>, you'll find a link where you can learn all about The Ignite Campaign and how to take part. We are taking financial donations, we'll be offering a silent auction, and we'll be selling raffle tickets.

We are also asking you to consider becoming an Ambassador to help us spark more interest and support.

Every week, we'll feature videos and stories about our different activities and ministries; Ambassadors commit to help share these with fellow parishioners, with friends outside the parish, or on social media. Please choose the "Ambassador" button on the Ignite Campaign page to learn more, or contact Angela Pancella at angela@sfxstl.org.

Antiracism at College Church

An Invitation to Discern

Our Church continues in its commitment to being an Antiracist Parish. As our work grows, so do the opportunities and needs for us to directly contribute to this College Church priority. In October, College Church launches its Parish Review, the purpose of which will be to increase awareness and accountability and to enable College Church to most effectively target and redress Racism within our institution, daily experiences and practices.

Who is the College Church that's doing this work? It is each of us, together as One Body, and, yes, we need you.

In true Ignatian manner, we ask you to discern your understanding of our Parish commitment and your role in this work. In his September 12 homily, Fr. Page referenced an Austrian philosopher, with my takeaway being this - how we formulate or define the problem may in fact be a reason for the problem. Pulling this into our Ignatian practice of discernment, consider asking yourself - how do I define the Problem of Racism?

Do I see Racism as something ugly but outside of my personal or our parish sphere? Or do I join with our Church that fighting Racism is a Gospel imperative? Is Racism limited to a litany of horrific wrongs against black and brown bodies, including those of Breonna Taylor, Treyvon Martin and George Floyd? Or do I see the problem of Racism infusing and extending to disparate rates of maternal mortality and to suspicious persons police calls when a black or brown person walks down a suburban street? How does my definition of Racism feed or redress the problem?

Then, Ask - how am I called to help dismantle Racism? And Listen.

The call will be different for each of us. That's the beauty of the many parts but one body that comprise our Church. Some may be called to prayer alone, others of our Parish may be called to begin, or continue, to march, to organize health care drives, or to engage in any of the many iterations of equity, dignity and love. And we certainly hope that for a critical and growing number of us, God's call will lead to an actual call (or email) - to Lisa, Winnie or Carl, with an offer to join in our Church's Antiracism work and, specifically, with our upcoming Antiracism Parish Review.

In 2018, data from Parish focus groups showed that 68% of respondents considered Racism an urgent problem, and 40% recognized Racism within our personal spheres. Where are we, as individuals and as a Church, today? Please prayerfully inform yourself and reflect, perhaps, first, on what you understand Racism to be, and, second, on your role and responsibility to dismantle it and to more fully recognize Christ in our Church and in our relationships with each other.

Care for Creation Discernment Team Forming

College Church is creating a Care for Creation Team to address the priority in Our Parish Vision that reads Reconciliation with Creation: Through Christ all of creation has come into being and bears the imprint of the Creator; hence, all is holy. Our innate connection with the created world has been severed, leading to brokenness and illness everywhere - politically, spiritually, environmentally. It is our moral and evolutionary responsibility to reclaim our awareness of the holiness of all, re-establish our connectedness, and be about healing ourselves and our planet. We are called to realign our relationships to reduce isolation from one another. In doing so, we can realize our shared abundance. We are also called to decrease our environmentally damaging consumerism and culture of disposability.

Our vision is counter cultural and will require communal conversion. If this sounds interesting to you please plan to join us on Sunday, October 31 from 9:15-10:15am in the ballroom. Open to anyone in high school or older.

Ministry Month: Our Featured Ministries this Sunday

Outreach Program: This weekly program facilitates access to State ID cards and birth certificates for individuals experiencing poverty and homelessness. We operate on Tuesdays. Contact Jasmine Brown for more information: outreach@sfxstl.org

Pastoral Care Commission: The focus of the Pastoral Care Commission is to provide prayerful support, as well as practical service and companionship to parishioners experiencing loss, grief, health crises and other challenging life events. We endeavor to do that through the following committees: Pastoral Ministry, Bereavement, Miscarriage and Infant Loss, Intercessory Prayer, Elder Prayer Companions, and Alzheimer's Information and Support. Contact Bridget Brennan for more information: joy@canainstitute.org

And remember, email angela@sfxstl.org when you hear the secret word!

Online Giving Reminder

Over the past several years (even before the pandemic!), we've been inviting our parishioners and friends to consider supporting College Church through online giving. If you set up weekly or monthly gifts, it saves the trouble of writing out checks, and it means our ministries can better rely on stable funding.

Many of our parishioners have begun to contribute to College Church through our online link, which can be found at the top of our website, sfxstl.org. We wanted to make it more convenient to reach this site, so we have made a QR code for it. You can find this code on cards we will leave in the pews every week.
