Welcome, Katie Jansen, as our new Parish Life Coordinator!

You can find Katie's reflections on this new role on page 6. And please join us after the 8 am and 10:30 am Masses today in the Ballroom for a small reception in Katie's honor. We will have an official installation in the fall, when our Provincial, Fr. Tom Greene, SJ, is able to celebrate with us.

Please mark your calendars also for our Pentecost Potluck!

Sunday, June 5, we will celebrate how the Holy Spirit enabled Jesus's followers to speak of the mighty acts of God in many different languages. We encourage you to bring foods that reflect many different cultures to this celebration (and as a reminder, St. Louis has wonderful international restaurants, everything from Vietnamese to Bosnian, in case you'd rather not do the cooking yourself!).

We're also looking for a Decoration Crew, people to help serve the food, and people to help clean up afterwards. Other volunteer jobs are available, too. Please sign up at this link for bringing food or volunteering:

tinyurl.com/collegechurchpotluck

Thanks to Youth Faith Formation helpers, we'll have activities for children at this event.

Do you love weddings? Would you be interested in becoming a part of the College Church Wedding Ministry Team? We are currently looking to expand our Wedding Ministry and need a couple of Sacristans. This is a paid position. This position does require a Friday and Saturday commitment, however, this requirement is not for every weekend.

For more information call Sandy Hauck at 977-7303 or email her at sandy@sfxstl.org.

Reminder: Don't forget fresh coffee, chocolate, tea, soup, chili, corn bread, brownie mix, and gift boxes from your friendly College Church Fair Trade Committee. All proceeds directly benefit our Jesuit sister parish, St. Peter Claver, in Belize. Order online at <https://sfxstl.org/buy-fair-trade>

Our Leadership Transition:
Becoming a more Synodal
Church

Reflections on
Our Leadership Transition

On Easter Monday, College Church officially began a new model of parish leadership and I became the Parish Life Coordinator (PLC). A PLC “has the responsibility of administering and overseeing the temporalities of a designated parish, as well as participating in and giving pastoral direction to the parish,” according to the archdiocese’s definition.

Ever since our parish began moving in this direction, I have had these two thoughts almost daily: “This is a big deal!” and “This is no big deal.” And I think both are true. On one hand, the week after Easter felt about the same as the week before Easter. I will still organize the staff meetings, pay bills and work with parish leadership to become more synodal. Fr. Dan and I will continue to collaborate as we always have. And he will still preside at masses, weddings, funerals, etc.

On the other hand, I’m only the second lay woman in this Archdiocese to be a Parish Life Coordinator. For most of my life I think I had a subconscious assumption that there was a limit or a cap on what God would call me to as a woman and a lay person. And now I find myself asking the question, “What if there’s no cap?” For me, asking this question brings great joy.

I am also excited by the space being opened up by Pope Francis for women and lay people. Here at College Church and in other networks of Catholic women, I see an incredible abundance of talented, creative, wise, faith-filled lay people who feel called to ministry. As the Church becomes better able to listen and recognize the gifts and calls of lay people, I wonder if we might stop lamenting the decline of the Catholic Church. I think we might realize we were just looking in the wrong places. Our God is a God of abundance. This is no less true today than it was when the loaves and fish were multiplied.

What if there is no cap on what God is calling you to? What if there is no cap on what God is calling us to? What if there is no cap on God’s abundance? That’s a big deal.

Katie Jansen
Parish Life Coordinator

Antiracism at College Church

At College Church, antiracism is an expression of our recognition that all are created in the image of God. As such, we respond—personally and collectively—to the call to identify, and to actively challenge, structures and systems that devalue people on the basis of race, and to practice restoration in the pursuit of justice.

April is Arab-American Heritage Month

By Lea Koesterer

The month of April offers an opportunity to celebrate the history, culture, and contributions of Arab Americans. Last year, President Joseph Biden issued a special commemorative letter recognizing the month of April as National Arab American Heritage Month and, now, twenty-seven states and the U.S. State Department observe the month.

According to the Arab American Institute, approximately 3.7 million Americans have Arab roots—a diverse population hailing from twenty-two Middle Eastern and North African countries. As part of our recognition of this month, we highlight some of the history and hardships of the Catholic presence in Palestine.

Pope Francis recognized the State of Palestine in 2014. Approximately 50,000 Catholics reside in historic Palestine, mostly in the areas of Ramallah, Bethlehem, and Jerusalem. In 2015, two Palestinian women were declared saints: Blessed Marie-Alphonsine, who founded the Dominican Sisters of the Holy Rosary of Jerusalem, and Blessed Mary of Jesus Crucified, a mystic and member of the Discalced Carmelites. In addition to the 103 Catholic parishes, there are several religious communities that maintain holy sites, provide education, and minister to people in need. But the ongoing occupation of Palestine by Israel presents daily challenges.

In the birthplace of Christianity, Christians are dwindling. Young Catholics see a dismal future in the nation-state of Israel and the occupied territories of Palestine and Gaza. Every aspect of the daily lives of Palestinians of all faiths is determined by Israel. The local Church strongly echoes the calls of the Holy See. “Our Church has been clear that peace requires justice... It is our duty not to ignore injustice nor any aggression against human dignity regardless of who is committing them.”

The Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem, Patriarch Pizzaballa of the Roman Catholic jurisdiction, offers a similar position, “Our Church has been clear that peace requires justice... The mission of the Catholic Church cannot be bound by a particular party position or ideological option. A prophetic church is called to point to injustice and to denounce it.” Further, the Church in Palestine reminds the Universal Church that the occupation of Palestine by Israel “is an open festering wound and that the situation cannot be considered normal,” as stated by the Commission for Justice and Peace of the Catholic bishops of the Holy Land.

Despite the tensions, the following religious orders are among those remaining active in the Holy Land:

Franciscan Friars established the Custodia Terrae Sancte (Custody of the Holy Land), which is responsible for maintaining sites held holy by Christians, in Acre in 1217. Eight hundred years later the friars are still present, safeguarding Christian holy sites and supporting the local people. Together with other Christian denominations, they are now protecting the Mount of Olives from expropriation by Israel.

Dominicans have worked in the Middle East for more than 250 years. Dominican friars at St. Stephen’s Priory in Jerusalem conduct a university program in biblical studies at École Biblique. Dominican women are working in schools, hospitals, and parishes in Israel-Palestine.

De La Salle Christian Brothers founded Bethlehem University in 1893. It is the oldest university in the occupied Palestinian territories. The university was shut down by Israel in 2002-2003 during Israel’s invasion of Bethlehem. Research at the Palestine Institute for Biodiversity and Sustainability at Bethlehem University, spearheaded by Dr. Mazin Qumsiyeh, is world-renowned. The Catholic Church has exerted its power to protect Dr. Qumsiyeh while he explains to the world the environmental damage caused by the occupation.

Father David Neuhaus, of the Society of Jesus, is a scholar and author who has worked in a variety of ministries in Palestine and is currently the superior of the Jesuit community in the Holy Land. In an interview with Commonweal, he said, “Let every word we speak be a word that promotes justice and peace, forgiveness and reconciliation... Our words are words of war or of peace, of hatred or of love, of prejudice or of openness, and with the words we speak we form the reality that will materialize tomorrow.”

Our Paschal Candle

The Paschal Candle this year has hues of green, the liturgical color of healing. Maybe it is you personally, a family member, your community, our city, our nation, the geo-political world or the planet Earth itself that comes to mind when you think of what needs the gentle, healing touch of God. The peak in the back of the candle is actually the apex of a triangle that folds in on itself at the front. This symbolizes the Trinity, and our prayer is for the Holy Spirit to make some changes in the minds and hearts of those who have power and who exploit, abuse, and injure others! The small circles on the candle bear the colors of the flags of nations currently in conflict. A Google search turned up a minimum of twenty such areas. We are all focused on Ukraine at this moment, but there are many other nations in turmoil and war.

With our Easter candle, the symbol of the Light of Christ, we pray for those in need of healing, for healing of the body politic world-wide, and the healing of our planet, Earth.

Theology of Synodality

"What the heck is synodality?" Fr. Dan will be offering an introduction to the theology of synodality this spring. Sessions will be via Zoom and will take place the five Tuesdays of May. The primary source will be the International Theological Commission's document on synodality. We will also look at the relevant biblical texts and the Vatican II document Lumen Gentium. Sessions will go from 7:15 to 8:15 May 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31.

The registration link is on our website, sfxstl.org.

The Next Chapter

The Next Chapter is a program grounded in Ignatian Spirituality that has been offered in the St. Louis community for the past five years. It is a six-month guided journey in a group setting for people who are approaching retirement or who are recently retired. The ultimate goal of the program is to assist one to discern how he or she wants to live the next chapter of life. For more information, go to www.nextchapterprogram.org.

The next session of the program begins in October of 2022. The first step for participating in the program is to attend an information session. They will be held on April 27, May 31, and June 15 at Mercy Retreat Center, 2039 Geyer Road. The sessions start at 6:30 p.m. To RSVP for an information session, please email Tom Auffenberg at thomas.auffenberg@slu.edu and indicate which session you desire to attend.

YOUTH AND FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

BE A PART OF THE COLLEGE CHURCH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

The College Church Religious Education, RE, program is looking for faith-filled individuals to lead RE classes next year.

No experience is needed. Individuals need to be strong in their faith and eager to share it with children. The textbook series is Finding God, a publication of Loyola Press which takes an Ignatian Approach to religious instruction. In addition to class work and discussions the school year includes Sandwich Sundays, and Class Masses and service days as possible. Those are coordinated by the Youth Faith Formation staff.

Catechists work in teams, and a parent or parishioner is often paired with a SLU student. The students bring their leadership experience and love for God, which is outstanding modelling for our children.

Classes meet on most Sunday mornings, 9:15 – 10:20 in the Parish Center and in Davis-Shaughnessy Hall, from September through early May. On nice mornings classes often meet outside. On Sundays when a catechist is not available, the co-leader will manage the class. If you are unable to commit to a full schedule right now, you can volunteer to be a substitute.

Catechists receive free tuition for their children and are paid a modest stipend. They need to be in compliance with the Archdiocese Prevent and Protect STL program.

Please contact Terry Edelmann at terry@sfxstl.org or Julie Kilian at julie.kilian4@gmail.com if you want to volunteer or if you have any questions. You can also contact Terry or Julie if you have questions about the RE program itself.

YOUTH AND FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN FOR YOUTH FAITH FORMATION PROGRAMS

Families with children preschool through eighth grade can register for the 2022-2023 College Church Youth Faith Formation Programs. The College Church offers both a traditional religious education (RE) program and a Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) program. The RE program is available for children second through eighth grade. The CGS program is offered for children from preschool through sixth grade. You may be put on a waiting list for the CGS program.

Classes meet at 9:15 on Sunday morning in the College Church and in Davis-Shaughnessy Hall, just west of the Pius XII Library. RE classes conclude at 10:40, GCS classes go until 11:15 with children brought to their parents during the 10:30 Mass.

Both programs are based on Ignatian Spirituality, with an emphasis on God's unconditional love, and on the importance of service. The programs use the Examen to reflect on each day's opportunity to be Christ-like in daily activities.

RE classes are organized by grade level and operate in a more traditional classroom setting. CGS classes are Montessori-based, with multi-aged groupings, and they encourage children to grow in their faith life through individual experience. Children in both programs receive sacraments in second and eighth grade.

For more information about these programs contact Julie Kilian at julie.kilian4@gmail.com or Terry Edelmann at terry@sfxstl.org.

To register, visit sfxstl.org/youth-faith and click the "Youth Faith Formation Registration" button.

Eating Less Meat

Abstaining from eating meat on Fridays has been our practice during Lent. Eating less meat can be a moderate sacrifice that significantly benefits our Earth and all her children. Our home planet is a life-sustaining gift from our gracious God. After Easter we can choose to continue abstaining from meat once a week or maybe a second day each week, or even more. For information on how eating less meat has an important environmental impact, please see The Diet that Helps Fight Climate Change here: <https://tinyurl.com/bddw223f>.
