Reflection from our Pastoral Council Chair

By Maurice K. Muia

We are busy! Summer is in full swing. The excessive heat has been enveloping the globe. But above all, Pope Francis traveled to Edmonton, Canada, there he will formally apologize to our Indigenous brothers and sisters for the Church's role in school abuses.

On another note, At St. Francis Xavier we are currently transitioning from a Priest led model to one led by our Parish Life Coordinator – Katie Jansen. The Archdiocese of St. Louis is leading "All Things New", a three year process of prayer, listening, and action. Finally, the global Catholic Church is currently in the middle of a Synod on Synodality. This Synod is an opportunity for all of us to be in communion with one another, actively participate, and live the mission of the Gospel.

Everything that I stated above distills down to one major theme – a call to listen. St. Ignatius in his letter to the Fathers attending the Council of Trent says: "Be slow to speak, and only after having first listened quietly, so that you may understand the meaning, leanings, and wishes of those who do speak. Thus you will better know when to speak and when to be silent." One of my favorite things to do as a fellow parishioner of College Church is to listen and have fruitful conversations with my neighbors. I never know where the conversation will lead me, but I know that when I focus and tune in faithfully to the conversation, it is always an amazing experience.

There is a prayer that I love to read often, it is called "Teach Me to Listen" by John Veltri, SJ. As you read this prayer, I ask that you utilize the Examen exercise to guide your path to a route where God is present and where your gifts and talents fulfill your personal calling.

Teach me to listen, O God, to those nearest me, my family, my friends my co-workers. Help me to be aware that no matter what words I hear, the message is "Accept the person I am. Listen to me."

Teach me to listen, my caring God, to those far from me – the whisper of the hopeless, the plea of the forgotten, the cry of the anguished.

Teach me to listen, O God my Mother, to myself. Help me to be less afraid to trust the voice inside – in the deepest part of me.

Teach me to listen, Holy Spirit, for your voice – in busyness and in boredom, in certainty and in doubt, in noise and in silence.

Teach me, Lord, to listen. Amen. – John Veltri, SJ

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

With the hope of the Resurrection, we ask that you remember in your prayers:

Captain William Webster (father of John Webster)

May he and all the departed share in the peace and joy of God's presence forever.

NOTA BENE*Upcoming Special Celebrations

Sunday, August 7, please help us welcome Fr. Tim McMahon, SJ to College Church. We will have a small reception in his honor in the Ballroom after the 8 am and 10:30 am Masses.

On Sunday, August 14, we will bring back Donut Sunday as well as have an informal farewell for Fr. Dan (before our more elaborate celebration/fundraiser on Sunday, November 13). This will also take place after the 8 am and 10:30 am Masses. Donut Sundays will then be ongoing on the second Sunday of the month. Would you like to help volunteer at these gatherings? Reach out to the chair of our Social Connections Commission (formerly known as Parish Life), Maureen Hooch (butmomwhy@gmail.com).

On Sunday, August 21 at the 10:30 am Mass, we will celebrate the installation of Katie Jansen as Parish Life Coordinator. The celebrant at the Mass will be Monsignor Dennis Stehly, with Fr. Tim, Fr. Dan and our Provincial, Fr. Tom Greene, as concelebrants. We will have a small reception in the ballroom after Mass.

Welcome, Alex Carson!

Alex Carlson celebrates the sacraments of Christian Initiation today. Alex is from Lawrence, KS, and has lived and worked in St. Louis since she graduated from St. Louis University in 2017. She attended her first mass, a 9 pm mass, at College Church in 2013. With the support of her friends and family, she has grown in her faith and is looking forward to being part of the College Church community.

Jubilee Congratulations!

Longtime parishioner and spiritual director Sister Therese Anne Kiefer, ASC, is celebrating her 65th jubilee as an Adorer of the Blood of Christ. Congratulations and blessings to you!

Calling all parishioners with a background in policy, advocacy, or simply a passion for working towards systemic change!

The College Church Outreach Program has formed an Advocacy Committee with a goal to support the efforts of the Birth Certificate and Identification Program by addressing systemic issues surrounding challenges that our guests face. The committee has begun to meet monthly and seeks new members to join its mission!

Please join us on Wednesday August 3rd from 5-6:30PM in the Parish Center for an action-focused meeting. Please email Christine Dragonette at christine@sfxstl.org if you would like to attend, have questions, or would like to be included on future communications. Thank you!

Fr. Dan's Sabbatical Plans

Hi everyone. I trust that you are enjoying this hot and sticky St. Louis summer. What a shocker. I want to share my plans for the rest of the summer and beyond. I will remain at College Church through August. There is more than enough sacramental work to keep me busy during the summer. Fr. Tim McMahon, SJ will become the canonical pastor on August 1st. I will remain to assist Katie Jansen and Fr. Tim in this transition period. My last weekend at the parish will be August 27-28.

The provincial has approved my sabbatical request. Hooray! I will have the academic year to rest, read, and relax. I look forward to visiting family and friends without time constraints. A highlight will be visiting the St. Ignatius Loyola sites in Europe during the spring semester. This will be my first time being on pilgrimage to the significant places in his life. The plan is by next summer to be tanned, rested and ready for whatever comes next.

—Fr. Dan

We're making plans as a parish to celebrate Fr. Dan's ten years with us on Sunday, November 13th with a brunch fundraiser. More details to follow!

Introducing Fr. Tim McMahon, SJ

As Fr. Dan mentioned above, Fr. Tim will be joining us starting this weekend. Here is a bit about his background so you can start keeping him in your prayers:

Father Timothy McMahon, SJ most recently served as Associate Pastor at St. Matthew the Apostle Parish in St. Louis. Prior to arriving in St. Louis he served as Superior of the Jesuits in Houston and as Pastor of Sacred Heart Parish in El Paso, Texas from 2019-2020. Fr. He served as the Provincial of the Jesuits of the Missouri Province from 2003 – 2009 and as Provincial Assistant for Formation and Secondary Education from 2001 - 2003. Fr. McMahon spent seven years as pastor of St. Frances Xavier Church and elementary school in Kansas City, Missouri and adjunct professor of Biology at Rockhurst University (1994 -2002). He also served in the Province Offices as Vocation Director and Provincial Assistant for Planning (1991-1994). He did pastoral ministry in Santa Tecla, El Salvador (1987-1989) and taught Biology at St. John's College in Belize (1982-1984) .and at De Smet Jesuit High School in St. Louis, Missouri. (1989-1991)

Antiracism at College Church

At College Church, antiracism is an expression of our recognition that all are created in the image of God. As such, we respond—personally and collectively—to the call to identify, and to actively challenge, structures and systems that devalue people on the basis of race, and to practice restoration in the pursuit of justice.

Our Parish Racial Equity Review:

An Update

On Thursday, July 14th, twenty-three College Church parishioners—most of whom are members of the Racial Equity Review Team—and community partners from the Jesuit Province and the Jesuit Scholastics Antiracism Sodality completed the five-week antiracism training program offered by the Crossroads organization. The workshop was a critical component of the equity review, which began several months ago and is projected to continue throughout the year. The workshop sessions were designed to prepare team members to engage in the collection of data relative to the appraisal of our parish life and, with that information in hand, to make recommendations toward becoming a more just and equitable community.

The sessions, building upon one another, set out an explication of U.S. history in terms of the conventional narratives with which we are all familiar (stock stories), moved to an exploration of the lived experiences of marginalized people whose stories are typically not included in standard historical accounts (concealed stories), and concluded with stories that represent resistance to, and transformation of, the well-known historical record. Attendees considered how racial identity is formed and how the dominant culture is advantaged in our society. Of most importance, and greatest significance for the next stage of the review, were the introduction of evaluative tools and the application of learning to our antiracism work at College Church.

The workshop content was thought-provoking, challenging, and enlightening, offering team members the opportunity for personal exchange that fostered group cohesion and fitted each with a lens through which to view the next set of review tasks. Planning to begin those tasks is underway, with the assistance of Crossroads staff, and is expected to extend outward to engage more College Church parishioners. For more information about the parish racial equity review, contact Lisa Burks, Imburks60@gmail.com, or Winnie Sullivan, penultim@swbell.net.

The CROWN Act of 2022

On March 11th of this year, the US House of Representatives passed H.R.2116. It is known as the CROWN Act: Creating a Respectful and Open World for Natural Hair Act and is now before the Senate Judiciary Committee for their consideration. This bill extends the protection of equal rights under the law to include hair texture and hair style. It would ban race-based hair discrimination at work, federal programs, and public accommodations.

Similar civil rights safeguards were first introduced in the state of California and are now law in 17 states. Such legislative response was needed to address cases in which employees and job applicants were expected to give up hair styles such as cornrow braids in order to secure or maintain employment. Students have been excluded from attending class, sports, and other activities for wearing their hair in locks or twists. The policies that permit these actions disproportionately impact people of color. According to the NAACP (<https://www.naacpldf.org/natural-hair-discrimination/>), hair discrimination is rooted in systemic racism, and its purpose is to preserve white spaces. Policies that prohibit natural and cultural hair-styles, like afros, braids, bantu knots, and locs, have been used to justify the removal of Black children from classrooms, and Black adults from their employment.

Since the passage of the California law, the measure against race-based hair discrimination has earned support from federal and state legislators. The Missouri House of Representatives passed a similar measure prohibiting hair-based discrimination in state-funded schools that awaits approval by the Senate. St. Louis and Kansas City have prohibitions against this discrimination in education and employment.

A coalition of businesses and organizations have developed a campaign to support the passage of the federal legislation. For more information, and to find ways you can support this effort, go to thecrownact.com.

Summer Book and Movie Recommendations

Book Recommendation by David Werthmann

The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness by Gregory Boyle, SJ

Jesuit Father Gregory Boyle has worked for many years with gang members in south Los Angeles and has founded an organization called “Homeboys” to help them connect with others and rebuild their lives. This is the third book in which he shares endearing experiences of these troubled young men and women.

Boyle believes that most who end up in gangs do so because they have grown up in broken homes with no emotional support. Thus they have no social skills and no friends, they feel unpopular and very lonely. Many of them are school dropouts and have spent time in jail. Unfortunately, most of them are black or Latinx. What they need most to be rejuvenated is to feel tenderness, love, and be accepted as valuable in God’s eyes.

So the book is not just about treating those in the margins of society, but about how all of us can live authentically as Church. Near the end of the book, he quotes Richard Rohr who says that for St. Paul, we do not “live in the world and go to church; we live in the Church and go out to the world.”

One caution: because the book is about hardened gang members and ex-cons, the language gets quite rough in places. Yet it is “real” in these people’s lives.
