FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Pope Francis began the Season of Creation 2020 with a brief reflection for the entire Church. I want to highlight some themes in his address over the next few weeks I find especially helpful.

He begins by stating this is a time to remember who we are. Francis writes, "We exist only in relationships: with God the Creator, with our brothers and sisters as members of a common family, and with all of God's creatures within our common home." It is astonishing how often we forget something so fundamental. Each of us is in relationship to all that is. None of us can step outside of these intimate relationships, though we often act that way.

This inter-related existence is at the heart of our care for creation. We are aware that we cannot sooner exist apart from God, one another and our world. This connection binds us together. Christians believe all that is shares in the salvation of Jesus Christ.

The trick is to remember that truth. We need to practice the act of remembering. Pope Francis invites us to consider how damaging a skewed sense of independence is not only creation, but to ourselves. If we forget who we really are, how can we live as we should?

Human beings can only flourish and thrive when we recognize we are embedded, not separate, in God's loving, creative action.

Virtual Parish Assembly

Second Sunday of the Season of Creation

September 13, 2020 | 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

SCRIPTURES

Sirach 27:30-28:9

Ps. 103:1-4, 9-12

Romans 14:7-9

Matthew 18:21-35

On the 1st Sunday of the Season of Creation, the scriptures called us to accept our prophetic responsibility in love to invite each other to conversion and care for creation in these times of ecological crisis.

The readings today remind us not to let our prophetic call to others turn into anger or vengeance against them. If we do not forgive each other, we cannot expect God to forgive us.

We are invited to reflect with gratitude on all the failings, sins, and abuse of creation that God has forgiven us and is now calling us to confront, heal and transform.

The call to be prophetic, yet patient, non-judgmental and forgiving with each other if we hope God to forgive us extends to all the dimensions of the “integral ecological conversion” which Pope Francis identifies as the prophetic word of God to our world at this time: the interconnected environmental, economic, and social dimensions.

Points for Reflection on the Scriptures

Reading from the Book of Sirach. The mission of relaying God’s call to “integral ecological conversion” in these times can lead to frustration and anger when people refuse to listen, deny the truth and evidence, resist acting, and even actively oppose the work of caring for and healing Earth and all its Web of Life.

When crises are as urgent and destructive as the ecological/climate crises today, it is hard to be patient and gentle with those causing them who do not see the truth and the need or are not willing to change. When we watch families starve, the Amazon burn, floods ravage, arctic regions melt, and crucial waters evaporate in rising heat, anger about the thoughtlessness and destruction seems just and called for. When people we love suffer from the changing climate, the desire to strike out against those responsible rises quickly. The human costs: to those alive now and to future generations can be devastating. Earth is even now going through the Sixth Great Extinction with costs to all life that are massive.

Still, Sirach warns that clinging to anger and vengeance will bring God’s anger and vengeance upon us. We must forgive others’ injustice if we hope to have God forgive our own.

Legitimate righteous anger, on the other hand, can provide energy and courage to speak out and work for change, but this kind of anger seeks conversion and reconciliation, not vengeance or destruction. It does not become bitter.

Living The Word

God is present to us through the words of Scripture that are proclaimed in the liturgy each week. We are challenged to allow these words to find a home in our hearts and to be a light for our lives. Through the insights that we gain, we are invited to deepen our relationship with God and integrate God's ways into our words and deeds. Understanding the message clearly can be challenging since the authors lived in a different culture and at various times in history.

To provide context and background, Joe Milner will offer a weekly reflection group titled, Living The Word. These sessions will explore the background and context of the upcoming Sunday Scriptures, the virtues and values that are expressed, and ways to put these into practice in our lives. Sessions will have a presentation to introduce the scriptures, dialogue about their meaning for Christian living, and time for prayer.

Sessions will be offered via Zoom on Tuesday evening from 7:00 until 8:00, starting on Sept 22. Registration is requested. To register, please email Joe at: joe@sfxstl.org

Join us in exploring the scriptures and striving to live more fully for Christ.

Season of Creation Challenge

In a time of quarantine, digital learning, racial injustice, intensifying storms, and mass migration, holding space to act on climate change can feel overwhelming. This Season of Creation, the Ignatian Solidarity Network invites you to start simply with one new daily habit for a healthy planet.

Step one: Choose ONE daily action to repeat each day throughout the 34 days that will renew your relationship with creation or that will allow you to explore a radical new way of living with creation.

Step two: Take the pledge to commit to ONE action repeated daily throughout the 34 days of the Season of Creation to build a new environmental habit you've been meaning to get around to but haven't made time for.

Step three: Form and track your healthy habit for the planet! If desired, the ISN will send a daily email or text message reminder to keep you motivated. Find out more at: <https://tinyurl.com/yxr8rkwu>

Interested in Learning about the Catholic Faith?

If you would like to learn more about the Catholic Church, its beliefs and practices, you are invited to join our inquiry sessions. These offer an opportunity to ask questions about Catholic beliefs and practices. They are informal and focus on the issues which the participants deem important.

If you are interested in learning more, please contact Joseph Milner, (314) 977-7305 or joseph.milner@slu.edu.

YOUTH FAITH FORMATION NEWS*All Youth Faith Formation Parents are Invited to the Mass of the Holy Spirit, Sunday September 20 at noon (new time).

Join Father Dan and other Youth Faith Formation families in an outdoor Mass on the SLU campus for the Jesuit tradition of an opening Mass of the Holy Spirit for an academic year. Please bring chairs or a blanket. The space, behind the fountain, is ample and allows for maximal social distancing. Masks will be required.

Please contact Terry Edelmann at 314.712.4216 or Julie Kilian at 314.698.9268 if you are planning to attend. We need a count for hosts, and for individually wrapped snacks you can take with you when Mass is over. In case of inclement weather the Mass will be cancelled. We will contact you if this occurs.

Youth Faith Classes Resume September 27

College Church Youth Faith Formation Classes will begin Sunday, September 27. In an abundance of caution they will begin virtually, with a commitment to return to live classes as soon as it is safe.

Both RE and Catechesis of the Good Shepherd virtual classes will replicate the in-person classes as closely as possible. Classes for children in sacramental years will concentrate on sacramental preparation. There will be times when students in those years come together outside or in the ballroom for activities specific to that preparation.

There will be opportunities to come together even as we learn virtually. We will have Class Masses with seating in designated areas of the Church, and we will come together for penance services.

We will offer opportunities and suggestions for service work, either done independently at home, or in safe gatherings in the ballroom or outside.

It is all our hope and prayer that this is a very temporary situation. In the meantime we feel this structure will allow you and your family to maintain and nurture the role of faith in your life and keep a connection with our YFF family.

If you have questions please contact Terry Edelmann, 314.712.4216, or Julie Kilian at 314.698.9268.

New Classrooms for Atrium Levels I and II.

When students return to their Atrium classes, they will have a dedicated space which is much more easily accessible. Level I and II classrooms will all be in a large area behind the Ballroom in the space of the former Chapel.

All the rooms are larger than the current ones, and they will have a dedicated entry, down the ramp on the southside of the church. There are no steps so monitored entry and social distancing will not present a problem. Parents can park in the Laclede garage, which is free on Sunday, and just make a short trip through the campus to the Atrium door.

Purchase Fair Trade Products and Support our Sister Parish

Sales of fair trade products have resumed online only to benefit St. Peter Claver in Punta Gorda, Belize. Because of the pandemic, as well as a series of fires which destroyed farms in the community, unemployment in the area has increased dramatically. All the proceeds from our Fair Trade sales go directly to St. Peter Claver to help with their current Food Pantry needs.

To purchase go directly to SFX website at: <http://www.sfxstl.org/buy-fair-trade>

There are two options for receiving your items, which you will specify upon placing your online order. Both options occur twice a month on 1st and 3rd Sundays:

Hand Delivery (only for orders of $20 or more): One of our volunteers will deliver your products to your porch or in front of your home. If requesting delivery of orders which contain chocolate, please plan for immediate retrieval of your package in order to protect chocolate from melting. Volunteers will ring your doorbell/buzzer or knock on your door when dropping off items.

Pick-up at College Church (orders of any value): Pick-ups at the College Church will be pre-collected into bags with the buyer’s name displayed on the outside of the bag, available from 9-10:15am outside of the Ballroom (below the church) on the designated Sundays. We ask that parishioners wear a face mask and continue to practice social distancing during pick-up.

The deadline for ordering delivery or pick-up for the 1st and 3rd Sunday is the Tuesday before. Please contact Christine at christine@sfxstl.org with any questions and thank you in advance for your support!

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

With the hope of the Resurrection, we ask that you remember in your prayers all those who have recently died, including:

Bob Powers

May he and all the departed share in the peace and joy of God’s presence forever.

“Opt to Act” for Earth

REI Co-op is sponsoring Opt to Act, 52 simple weekly challenges to reduce your impact on the Earth, get active, and leave the world better than you found it. This well-researched website (Just Google REI Opt to Act Plan), actually helps with information on why and how to take these steps.

This week’s tip:

Week 43 (September 20-26): Save money and water by installing water-efficient fixtures. Water-efficient fixtures can be used in toilets, urinals, showerheads and faucets to reduce the flow of water, allowing you to use at least 20 percent less water than conventional fixtures, according to the EPA.
