FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Happy Himmelfahrtstag! That is Ascension Day in German. The German language has a unique way with names, and Himmelfahrt is a great example. It means "heaven trip." Not a bad description of the Ascension of Jesus.

The scriptural accounts of Christ's ascent are convoluted at best. St. Luke, in fact, tells the story two different ways in his Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. What is most important is that at some point the Risen Lord was no longer present physically to his followers. St. Mark in typical laconic fashion states, "So then the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God." Today is a reflection on that reality.

It is most helpful to place this in the wider context of the Passion, Death, Resurrection, and sending of the Spirit. Christians do not simply remember these events but participate in them through Jesus Christ. His own return to the Father is the anticipation of all believers who will share in this unity, too.

Thus, the feast of Himmelfahrt. It is a reminder of our ultimate end in Jesus Christ. We are all pilgrims on the heaven trip. This is the trajectory of salvation. The endpoint of this trip is not a place but God. Heaven is that final reality that we are moving toward, guided by the Spirit, where all will be one as the Father and Son are one.

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

With the hope of the Resurrection, we ask that you remember in your prayers all those who have recently died, including:

Epifania "Eppie" C. Hallazgo (mother of Jeff Hallazgo)

May she and all the departed share in the peace and joy of God's presence forever.

SOCIAL MINISTRY

Are you called to Encounter with our Neighbors in Need?

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Francis Xavier Conference, is seeking new members.

The Society was founded in 1844 by Blessed Frederic Ozanam as a college student in France. It is a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need. The conference at St. Francis Xavier College Church is committed to growing relationships with our Neighbors around College Church and to provide immediate help with rent, food vouchers, utilities, prescriptions, furniture/bedding. In the pandemic, over twenty-five Neighbors have reached out to us for help. We have eight active members and currently make home visits by phone.

For more information about becoming a Vincentian, please contact parishioner Kathy Danzo at kdanzo508@gmail.com

St. Francis Xavier Outreach Program Seeks New Volunteers for Summer 2021

The ID and Birth Certificate Program is hosted every Tuesday from 9 am-1 pm onsite at College Church. Volunteers are encouraged to give at least two hours of their time each week but our program offers flexibility. We offer on-site volunteer opportunities that comply with CDC guidelines (6-foot distance and masks are required for all) as well as remote administrative positions. Please reach out to Christine at christine@sfxstl.org with any questions or to volunteer.

From Outreach Coordinator Tess Sanders

By way of saying "see you later," as well as, "ongoing thanks to the most generous, fantastic and organized volunteers*" a program coordinator could hope for Tess S's non-comprehensive quintet of haikus.

Antiracism at College Church

A Statement of Solidarity

Two months ago, the mass shooting of eight people in Atlanta—six of whom were Asian women—focused the attention of the nation on the horror of the violent targeting of members of the Asian American Pacific Islander (AAPI) community. Since the beginning of the pandemic, acts of violence against that community have escalated by 150%. In the past year, nearly 4,000 anti-Asian incidents have occurred, associated—not coincidentally—with the racially charged rhetoric, promulgated by the previous U.S. administration, that assailed the Asian community over the coronavirus.

We, at College Church, condemn these acts of violence. And we mourn the loss of life, as we stand in solidarity with our AAPI brothers and sisters. We know that words have consequences; we recognize the connection between hateful speech and the actions it inspires, and we oppose racism in all of its manifestations. We call to mind the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., that “injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.”

Guided by the light of our faith and exhorted by Pope Francis, we commit never to “tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form.” We pray that all peoples might dwell in harmony and peace, united by the love that binds us to one another and to our one Lord.

Tuesday Vigils for Racial Justice

The weekly prayer vigils for racial justice have returned to the steps of College Church each Tuesday night from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm. Please join us as we stand in witness and prayer for equality and peace. You are encouraged to bring a sign expressing commitment to justice. If your group or organization is interested in leading a Tuesday vigil, please contact Joan McGinnis at jfmc676@gmail.com.

Month of Mary

For the Month of Mary, we are sharing images contributed by parishioners. This one is shared by Sister Carolyn McWatters. Her community, the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas, has a strong presence in Guam and is celebrating the 75th anniversary of the beginning of their ministries there!

Santa Marian Kamalen, also known as Our Lady of Camarin, is the patron saint of Guam. The 300-year-old Santa Marian Kamalen statue is a revered icon, and although its origins are unknown, they are explained through oral tradition. Pious legends claim that the image was brought by Spaniards in 1690 to the Cocos Island of Guam. One account of its discovery holds that a fisherman found the statue along the shore of Merizo.

You can read more about these Marian images by viewing a slide presentation posted online: <https://tinyurl.com/kvnktum2>

Update on the new leadership model for College Church

St. Francis Xavier (College) Church is moving to a new model of parish leadership. We will move from a traditional priest-pastor to a Parish Life Coordinator (PLC). Fr. Dan will transition out of his role as pastor and Katie Jansen, who serves currently as our parish administrator, will be our PLC. This change will take place in the latter half of 2022. Katie will have the responsibility of administering and overseeing the parish, as well as participating in and giving pastoral direction to College Church. This position already exists in a number of parishes in the archdiocese. Archbishop Rozanski supports this change.

For those familiar with Jesuit apostolic institutions, Katie will be the director of the work. The director of a work is responsible for the general administration of the works, together with the inspiration, apostolic orientation, and implementation of the mission. She will be accountable for this mission to the Jesuit provincial, Fr. Tom Greene, S.J.

Jesuit leadership is committed to missioning a priest to work full-time at the parish. He will have a critical role in leading the parish in prayer, preaching, celebrating sacraments, and be a resource for deepening the Ignatian Spirituality of SFX. He will serve as a member of Katie's staff.

The transition we are making is not just a change in leadership. It is a change in the way we are community. One could say that we are formalizing a structure that reflects the culture we have all been building at College Church. We have a long history of parishioners shaping the mission and direction of our community. The role that each of us plays makes us who we are, contributes to the body of Christ. Each of us is called to a pastoral role.

Pope Francis is talking a lot about a synodal church which is not simply about involving people in decision making but involving all the baptized in discerning God's will and listening to the Holy Spirit. The goal always is to find the best ways for every baptized person to fulfill the church's mission of proclaiming God's love and salvation in Jesus Christ to the world. Or, as the International Theological Commission writes: "A synodal church is a church of participation and co-responsibility. In exercising synodality she is called to give expression to the participation of all, according to each one's calling...Participation is based on the fact that all the faithful are qualified and called to serve each other through the gifts they have all received from the Holy Spirit."

Those are powerful words. But I've seen us living this call very clearly over the past year. Since we haven't been able to all be in church together, many of you have been ministers in your own homes. You set up your liturgical space and you assembled your congregation. Some of you have become catechists as your children have participated in youth faith formation from home. Some of you even shared your preaching online when we couldn't hold Triduum services last year. Many of us offered pastoral care to family members or others in our communities. Part of embracing synodality is simply naming the significance of the roles we are already called to.

In the coming months we will provide opportunities to discern with one another how we as a community are called to fulfill the church's mission. In preparation for that discernment, I invite you to reflect on this question: what pastoral role is God calling you to?

YOUTH AND FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

SOCIAL JUSTICE CAMP AT COLLEGE CHURCH

Students entering sixth through ninth grade are invited to a Social Justice Camp held at St. Francis Xavier "College" Church from June 28-July 2. Participants will learn how social justice issues are integral to our Catholic faith. They will see firsthand the needs that exist in our community and will have the opportunity for onsite visits and hands-on service to help some in our most vulnerable populations.

Through group discussions and artwork and journaling, students will develop solutions to the injustices they see. Cost for the camp is $250, which includes off-site transportation and snacks. Camp hours are 9 – 3 pm, with early arrival at 8:30. For more information, contact Terry Edelman at 314.712.4216 or terry@sfxstl.org.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

As our program grows, we are looking for help for the work to continue. We are in need of trained catechists, assistants, monetary donations towards catechist training, and people that enjoy crafting (woodworking, sewing, handcrafts, art, etc) to make/repair our much loved materials. If you fall into any of these categories or need more information, please let me know! I served as an assistant to Julie in level II for several years, this is a beautiful experience, you really get a feel for the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) approach and Atrium life. The scheduling can also be very flexible!

On the Youth Faith page of College Church's website (<https://sfxstl.org/youth-faith>) you can find a brochure for a Level I Catechist training offered at College Church! This training can appear daunting and is an investment of time, however I wanted to share a little of my experience.

Before learning about CGS, I was in another parish working with young children in a very traditional PSR program, on the search for something "more" for my children and the children I worked with. I was eventually led to a CGS Level I training course at College Church. I fell in love with the program and eventually our family moved to the College Church parish so that everyone could participate. The year of my training we ended up moving houses and being pregnant/having our youngest child! You might think, not the best time for a training like this, but it was beautiful and somehow worked! I was given the gift of a retreat during the classes and the CGS community is so supportive. I have fond memories of sharing notes after I'd had to stop and feed Meredith. After assisting Julie several years, I attended a Level II training at College Church, this time with four children (including a toddler) at home. It initially seemed impossible, but that monthly scheduled retreat for classes became vital, and I missed it after that year was finished. Again, the community built was amazing, there is flexibility and creativity that makes this work happen.

If you find yourself leaning towards becoming a catechist, I encourage you to give it a second thought and prayer, and let Julie Killian (julie@sfxstl.org) know if you'd like more information.

Amanda Taylor
Level II Catechist

Great news for College Church! Fr. Tom Greene, S.J. has missioned a soon-to-be ordained Jesuit to be our new associate pastor. Mr. James Page, S.J. will join our staff on August 1st. James will be working half-time with us and half-time with SLU campus ministry. Please keep him and his four Jesuit classmates in your prayers as they prepare for ordination to the priesthood next month.

James R. Page, SJ, was born and raised in New Orleans, alongside his younger brother. He attended Pomona College for undergraduate studies and majored in economics, while also becoming involved in a number of Bible study groups across the campuses of the Claremont Consortium.

He entered the Society of Jesus after college. For his first two years as a novice, James did apostolic work in a number of places: a L'Arche community in Kansas City, Mo., tutoring children in Nicaragua and working in high schools in Denver and Houston, among other ministries. After pronouncing first vows, he studied philosophy at Regis College at the University of Toronto. During his three years in Toronto, he also worked in catechetical programs, a L'Arche community, and participated in a number of interreligious dialogues hosted by the university.

James did his regency at SLUH teaching in the theology department. He also helped in the school's retreat programs and started a Philosophy Club. He then went on to earn his Licentiate in Sacred Theology at the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry, with a focus on Scripture. He was part of the RCIA program at St. Ignatius Church, and during his diaconate year, he worked at St. Michael's Church in Bedford, Mass.

Saying Goodbye and Thank You to Sr. Carolyn, Fr. Matt, Joanna and Tess

Sr. Carolyn McWatters (our Coordinator of Liturgy), Fr. Matt Stewart, SJ (our Associate Pastor), Joanna Boyd-Wilhite (part of our Youth Faith Formation team) and Tess Sanders (our Outreach Coordinator) will all be leaving our staff in the next few weeks, so we would like to honor their time at College Church with a going-away celebration.

This will be held on Sunday, May 23rd, after the 8 am and 10:30 am Masses. Light refreshments will be provided.

We will gather outdoors on the lawn on the south side of the church so there will be space to social distance. (Please wear masks when not eating.)

Watch this space for more details as the date approaches!
