FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The baptismal font in the front of church is irresistible to babies and toddlers. Yes, even more so than my homilies. It is the place for the kiddos who need a break from sitting and being quiet. They love to look at the water, but the real fun is playing with the water. Children will put their hands or entire arms in the font. I have no doubt some would jump in if given the chance.

Might this be a case where we can learn something important from our youngest parishioners? After all, Jesus did call us to be like children so as to enter the Kingdom.

Baptism is the beginning of every Christian's life of faith. Our font reminds us each time we enter church of who we are. Today's celebration of the Baptism of Jesus also reminds us that we share in his life. This is the very first appearance of the adult Jesus in Matthew's Gospel. His baptism and subsequent time in the desert prepare him for his public ministry.

The enthusiasm of our children for the waters of the font should encourage us. You may not feel the need to stick your whole arm in (though feel free), but a nice, wet sign of the cross can help us embrace our mission. It reminds us not just of who we are. This very Catholic gesture calls us to follow Jesus and share in his work.

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola is the manual for discerning how God is calling us to follow Him. The “White House” Jesuit Retreat Center in South St. Louis County applies the Spiritual Exercises to our daily lives to develop our faith, deepen our peace and increase our gratitude. You are personally invited to prayerfully consider joining a group of men from our parish to make a retreat at the “White House”, the evening of February 13th to the afternoon of the 16th. The beauty of the natural setting, the prayer and liturgies and the comfort of the accommodations combine to make this a spiritually renewing and rewarding experience. Reservations can be made online at www.whretreat.org or please call John Hartung (314-326-6018) or Deacon Jim Griffard (314-619-5700).

Marriage Takes Three

A small group of married couples have been reflecting on how our parish community provides support for married couples to gather and grow...

- ◆ In our Ignatian Spirituality – draw closer to God, individually and as a couple
- ◆ In our day to day lives – being present for each other
- ◆ In our ups and downs – periods of consolation and desolation; joy and sadness

With this in mind, College Church will be piloting a new offering for married couples in 2020 that includes monthly gatherings – once a month on Sunday between masses and two times in the spring we will gather in the ballroom for a casual potluck dinner. These gatherings will be an opportunity for couples listen to a short topic of interest, talk as a couple and make new connections with other married couples in our parish.

Our first gathering will be on Sunday, January 26. We will meet from 9:15 – 10:15 AM on Saint Louis University’s campus in Cook Hall (Chaifetz School of Business) just west of the Library on Lindell. We will have some light breakfast, coffee and tea.

We look forward to seeing you!! If you have any questions, please reach out to Carl and Laura Greiner by email at caglmg01@swbell.net or by phone at 314.974.4215.

Meet our new Social Ministry Communications Development VISTA!

My name is Sheltoria Love. I am a senior at Saint Louis University double majoring in Psychology and African American Studies. My hometown is Memphis, Tennessee. A fun fact is that my school was affiliated with the Stax Museum of American Soul Music, and there I played the violin for 7 years. My favorite cake is caramel cake, and I am a huge foodie. My hobbies include cooking, watching movies, and taking long naps. My career goals are to work in Diversity and Inclusion in Higher Education while doing corporate consultations related to D&I and organizational development. I hope to use my career to uplift and positively impact the lives of others. This parish's commitment to social justice really amazes me. I am a firm believer that institutions have an obligation to use their resources to impact the communities that surround them. My objective as the Communications Development VISTA volunteer is to help build the parish's capacity to uplift the communities it serves. I would not want to complete my term anywhere else. I will be serving I look forward to serving and becoming apart of this community.

National Migration Week

From January 5-11, 2020, the Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Migration Week. The theme for this year's celebration is "Promoting a Church and a World for All," which reflects the need for Catholics to be inclusive and welcoming to all. It is a call for unity to stand in solidarity with and care for those who are excluded and marginalized. We will be extending our recognition of National Migration Week to the entire month of January. Keep an eye on the bulletin and website for new information each week of the month.

Family Separation at the Border

December 16, 2019 – 19-year-old mother from Honduras gave birth while being detained by Border Patrol agents. But she is still not sure if she will be able to stay with her child or be deported – leaving the newborn in the U.S. This follows the new Migrant Protections Protocol (MPP), also known as Remain in Mexico, that returns asylum-seekers to Mexico to wait while their U.S. immigration cases are decided.

The very recent example highlights how immigration law can break up families, even ones so newly made. The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) has been in communication with U.S. immigration authorities, saying that more than 1,500 children have been separated within the Trump Administration. That brings the total number of children separated since July 2017 to more than 5,400. Once away from their families, the children can even be difficult to find due to inadequate tracking systems – leaning on volunteers to reconnect them together.

These actions go directly against the Catholic Social Teaching around good government – welcome the foreigner out of charity and respect for the human person. Coinciding with this duty is to secure one's border and enforce the law for the common good. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops have released earlier this millennium "Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope" – their pastoral letter stressing that, "when persons cannot find employment in their country of origin to support themselves or their families, they have a right to find work elsewhere in order to survive... [m]ore powerful economic nations have a stronger obligation to accommodate migration flows."

PASTORAL CARE COMMITTEE (PCC)

Update on Bulletin Prayer List

Over the past several months the PCC has been considering how we might improve the prayer list process, strengthen our communication with those on the list and ultimately enrich and enliven our care of those we serve in this important ministry. Mary Beth Erickson had long been the keeper of the list, communicating widely (and warmly) with so many in the parish on a daily basis. Her absence has made clear the need to refresh and revise our process for everyone's benefit. The beginning of the new year is an ideal time to make revisions. They are as follows.

Beginning immediately, the process for prayer list requests will be standardized.

Come by or call the main office at 314-977-7300. (M-F, 830-430) Please speak with Joyce Miller, Office Manager. Together you will begin the Intake Form to include:

Name and contact information for the person on list AND for person submitting request
Preference for communication with parish (phone, email etc)

Within 1-2 days you will be contacted by a member of the PCC to discuss:

Brief summary of the person's situation/condition
Specific prayer requests; other needs/concerns you may wish to share

Upon completion of Intake form and discussion, the person will be placed on the appropriate list.

Beginning in February, there will be 2 Lists

Short-term: those with an acute illness/injury/condition; those undergoing surgery or procedures. Cancer might be either list depending on need. This will be a more fluid list as it represents those with potentially curable/reversible conditions.

This list will be time-limited: 3 months initially, then reviewed.

Long-term: those who live with chronic illness/conditions; those residing in care homes; and those who because of advanced age or limitations can no longer attend church.

This list has no time limit.

Please understand that we are not intending to suggest that only certain diagnoses/conditions warrant a prayer list request. This is simply our effort to ensure that those who need on-going prayer will receive it, and those who have more time-limited situations will not remain on the list months after they have recovered.

Please Note: as we make this transition, we intend to EMPTY the current list on January 31. If you want to remain on the lists in February, a new intake form must be completed before January 31. Follow the process outlined above to remain on the list. For all first time requests, please follow the above process whenever your need arises. The distribution between 2 lists will not occur until February, but we will continue to add names during the month of January as needed.

For questions or comments, please contact Sarah Legett at legettsm@yahoo.com

Shared Prayer

“For whenever two or three are gathered together in my name, I am in their midst” (Mt 18:20). The Pastoral Care Committee would like to provide opportunities for parishioners to come together in prayer for the persons listed on the “Sick List” in our weekly bulletin, as well as for other personal needs. Please join us on the 2nd Sunday of the month after the 8:00 Mass and on the 4th Sunday of the month after the 10:30 Mass at the Blessed Sacrament Altar. A New Daily Spiritual Resource

Local spiritual director, poet and artist, Clarence Heller, has recently launched A Piece of Goodness, a daily Twitter-length excerpt from one of his poems, with convenient access to the entire poem for those who wish to engage it. These messages are available through a daily email, a post on Facebook and Twitter. To view an archive of past posts or to subscribe, visit www.clarenceheller.com. The late David Fleming, SJ had this to say about Clarence’s first book, Everyday Sacred. “Everyday Sacred allows us to uncover the divine presence shining through our various worlds. These intimate poetic reflections and vibrant paintings take us through the everyday areas of nature, home, family, Jesus, communion, church, and the present moment, letting God invite us to wonder and to love. I strongly recommend savoring slowly the many marvelously rich nourishments here that each person can make his or her own.”
