FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Gospel readings for each Sunday are on a three year rotation. This year we hear the Good News according to St. Matthew. You may have noticed during Advent the focus on Joseph rather than Mary which distinguishes Matthew's telling of Jesus' birth.

All four of the Evangelists offer their own particular "take" on the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. They offer a different flavor that helps us to understand who Jesus is. Each wrote to assist their particular community grow in faith. As St. John declares at the end of his Gospel, "These things are written that you might believe".

It has been said that Matthew's Gospel is the most Jewish of the Gospels. Scholars consider his work unintelligible without reference to the Old Testament and other Jewish writings. Jesus is the fulfillment of the Law and Prophets, and the culmination of God's covenant with Israel. He is sometimes portrayed as a "new" Moses or David, but he is particularly the long-awaited Messiah.

Jesus in Matthew's Gospel is a teacher. The prime example is the Sermon on the Mount (which lasts for three full chapters). Jesus not only is the best guide to understand God's law, but is the embodiment of the Law. He is the perfect witness of what it means to live in accord with God.

If you seek to know God, know Jesus.

The “Sunday of the Word of God”

All Christians are aware that the Sacred Scriptures lie at the heart of our faith. In the Bible we find the stories of God’s self-revelation and ongoing interaction with God’s people. We hear God speaking to our ancestors in faith and to us in our own day. From the Word, especially in the Gospels, we find truth and guidance for our lives.

St Jerome said that “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ”.

Pope Francis, expressing his hope that the faithful “grow in religious and intimate familiarity with the Sacred Scriptures”, has recently published an apostolic letter ‘Aperuit illis’, directing that the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time be designated the Sunday of the Word of God.

Francis stresses how essential it is for Catholics to familiarize themselves with Scripture so as to deepen our love for Christ and grow in our relationship with him. He said, “A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event”.

“I hereby declare that the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the word of God”, Pope Francis writes.

He further encourages local communities to find ways to highlight God’s word. Here at College Church we are blessed to have superb preachers who help us delve into the Word and apply it to our lives. We are provided with the opportunity to reflect on the Scriptures each Sunday morning with Sr Carla Mae Streeter. Our lectors strive always to prepare their proclamation so as to help the proclaimed Word be received in our hearts.

This year the 3rd Sunday falls on January 26. In the masses that weekend we will hear more about the importance of God’s Word in the homilies; pray for the lectors in our parish; and recommission them for the vital ministry they perform as Proclaimers of the Word. In the bulletin we will also list a variety of excellent online Scripture resources available to us.

Interested in Learning about the Catholic Faith?

If you would like to learn more about the Catholic Church, its beliefs and practices, you are invited to come to our inquiry sessions. These offer an opportunity to ask questions about Catholic beliefs and practices. They are informal and focus on the issues which the participants deem important. If you are interested in learning more, please contact Joseph Milner, 977-7305 or joseph.milner@slu.edu

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola is the manual for discerning how God is calling us to follow Him. The “White House” Jesuit Retreat Center in South St. Louis County applies the Spiritual Exercises to our daily lives to develop our faith, deepen our peace and increase our gratitude. You are personally invited to prayerfully consider joining a group of men from our parish to make a retreat at the “White House”, the evening of February 13th to the afternoon of the 16th. The beauty of the natural setting, the prayer and liturgies and the comfort of the accommodations combine to make this a spiritually renewing and rewarding experience. Reservations can be made online at www.whretreat.org or please call John Hartung (314-326-6018) or Deacon Jim Griffard (314-619-5700).

Meet our new Social Ministry Communications Development VISTA!

My name is Sheltoria Love. I am a senior at Saint Louis University double majoring in Psychology and African American Studies. My hometown is Memphis, Tennessee. A fun fact is that my school was affiliated with the Stax Museum of American Soul Music, and there I played the violin for seven years. My favorite cake is caramel cake, and I am a huge foodie. My hobbies include cooking, watching movies, and taking long naps. My careers goals are to work in Diversity and Inclusion in Higher Education while doing corporate consultations related to D&I and organizational development. I hope to use my career to uplift and positively impact the lives of others. This parish's commitment to social justice really amazes me. I am a firm believer that institutions have an obligation to use their resources to impact the communities that surround them. My objective as the Communications Development VISTA volunteer is to help build the parish's capacity to uplift the communities it serves. I would not want to complete my term anywhere else I will be serving. I look forward to serving and becoming apart of this community.

National Migration Week

From January 5-11, 2020, the Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Migration Week. The theme for this year's celebration is "Promoting a Church and a World for All," which reflects the need for Catholics to be inclusive and welcoming to all. It is a call for unity to stand in solidarity with and care for those who are excluded and marginalized. We will be extending our recognition of National Migration Week to the entire month of January. Keep an eye on the bulletin and website for new information each week of the month.

<http://sfxstl.org/nationalmigrationweek>

Right Not to Migrate

When talking with North Americans visiting his parish in Guatemala, Padre Mynor stresses that families don't move to the U.S. for adventure. "Parents have an obligation to migrate to support their children." This seems obvious upon seeing the funeral store a short distance away that is half full of child-sized caskets. The Catholic approach to migration holds seemingly opposing values in tension. Nations have a right to control their territories. Persons also have the right to migrate to support their families if they can't do so in their country.

In our polarized national debate, we should emphasize a third principle: People have the right to find opportunities in their homeland. We support this principle here through our fair trade sales that gives farmers prices for their coffee and other products that allow them to thrive at home. We can also support it through legislative advocacy.

The U.S. helps people stay in their countries through international development aid implemented through NGOs like Catholic Relief Services. This aid funded programs that created youth jobs to counter violent gangs. It trained farmers to address climate change that causes so many to migrate. The aid did much more. It made a difference. In March 2019 President Trump halted all U.S. development aid to the Central American Northern Triangle and lifesaving programs have ceased. Fortunately, the U.S. House passed bipartisan legislation that prevents the administration from rescinding this aid and requires that it be spent for its allocated purpose. HR2615, The Northern Triangle Enhanced Engagement Act has moved to the Senate and awaits a sponsor. We can help prevent the need to migrate by contacting Senators Blunt and Hawley and asking them to sponsor this legislation.

PASTORAL CARE COMMITTEE (PCC)

Update on Bulletin Prayer List

Over the past several months the PCC has been considering how we might improve the prayer list process, strengthen our communication with those on the list and ultimately enrich and enliven our care of those we serve in this important ministry. Mary Beth Erickson had long been the keeper of the list, communicating widely (and warmly) with so many in the parish on a daily basis. Her absence has made clear the need to refresh and revise our process for everyone's benefit. The beginning of the new year is an ideal time to make revisions. They are as follows.

Beginning immediately, the process for prayer list requests will be standardized.

Come by or call the main office at 314-977-7300. (M-F, 830-430) Please speak with Joyce Miller, Office Manager. Together you will begin the Intake Form to include:

Name and contact information for the person on list AND for person submitting request
Preference for communication with parish (phone, email etc)

Within 1-2 days you will be contacted by a member of the PCC to discuss:

Brief summary of the person's situation/condition
Specific prayer requests; other needs/concerns you may wish to share

Upon completion of Intake form and discussion, the person will be placed on the appropriate list.

Beginning in February, there will be 2 Lists

Short-term: those with an acute illness/injury/condition; those undergoing surgery or procedures. Cancer might be either list depending on need. This will be a more fluid list as it represents those with potentially curable/reversible conditions.

This list will be time-limited: 3 months initially, then reviewed.

Long-term: those who live with chronic illness/conditions; those residing in care homes; and those who because of advanced age or limitations can no longer attend church.

This list has no time limit.

Please understand that we are not intending to suggest that only certain diagnoses/conditions warrant a prayer list request. This is simply our effort to ensure that those who need on-going prayer will receive it, and those who have more time-limited situations will not remain on the list months after they have recovered.

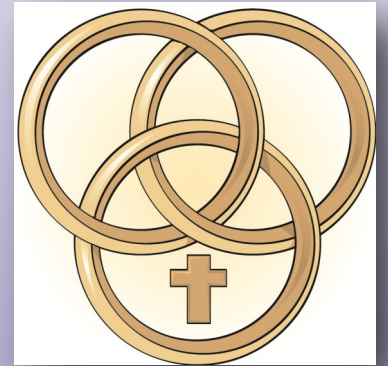

Please Note: as we make this transition, we intend to EMPTY the current list on January 31. If you want to remain on the lists in February, a new intake form must be completed before January 31. Follow the process outlined above to remain on the list. For all first time requests, please follow the above process whenever your need arises. The distribution between 2 lists will not occur until February, but we will continue to add names during the month of January as needed.

For questions or comments, please contact Sarah Legett at legettsm@yahoo.com

Marriage Takes Three

A small group of married couples have been reflecting on how our parish community provides support for married couples to gather and grow...

- ◆ In our Ignatian Spirituality – draw closer to God, individually and as a couple
- ◆ In our day to day lives – being present for each other
- ◆ In our ups and downs – periods of consolation and desolation; joy and sadness

With this in mind, College Church will be piloting a new offering for married couples in 2020 that includes monthly gatherings – once a month on Sunday between masses and two times in the spring we will gather in the ballroom for a casual potluck dinner. These gatherings will be an opportunity for couples to listen to a short topic of interest, talk as a couple and make new connections with other married couples in our parish.

Our first gathering will be on Sunday, January 26. We will meet from 9:15 – 10:15 AM on Saint Louis University's campus in Cook Hall (Chaifetz School of Business) just west of the Library on Lindell. We will have some light breakfast, coffee and tea.

We look forward to seeing you!! If you have any questions, please reach out to Carl and Laura Greiner by email at cagimg01@swbell.net or by phone at 314.974.4215.

Shared Prayer

“For whenever two or three are gathered together in my name, I am in their midst” (Mt 18:20). The Pastoral Care Committee would like to provide opportunities for parishioners to come together in prayer for the persons listed on the “Sick List” in our weekly bulletin, as well as for other personal needs. There is definitely peace and comfort that comes from sharing prayer together. Please join us on the 2nd Sunday of the month after the 8:00 Mass and on the 4th Sunday of the month after the 10:30 Mass at the Blessed Sacrament Altar. In Shared Prayer groups, confidentiality is of utmost importance and what is said in shared prayer remains in the group. This allows all participating to relax and open their hearts in prayer, knowing the group will be holding up their intentions then and throughout the coming days.
