FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Wednesday is the feast of St. Francis de Sales, a doctor of the Church. I recommend reading about his extraordinary life if you have a moment. It is striking how contemporary his concerns will sound. St. Francis wrote and preached on topics like divisions in the Church, struggles with faith, and a balanced spiritual life.

I find especially appealing his long friendship with another saint, Jane Frances Chantal. He became Jane's spiritual director not long after becoming bishop of Geneva. They remained fast friends over nearly 20 years. The care and affection they felt for one another is evident in their vast correspondence over that time.

Their friendship is attractive given the attention the seemingly-fractured relationship of men and women has received. It feels as if power and exploitation is the only way many men can relate to women. Sadly, we know the Church has not been immune to this sin.

Francis and Jane provide a powerful antidote to the despair we feel. Their deep friendship was rooted in faith, mutual respect, and generosity. Each helped the other in knowing their best desires. They felt a love for one another that was creative and expansive, always directed toward God. The intimacy of the friendship that shaped them reminds us of the goodness and holiness that men and women can find together.

ST. LOUIS REVIEW

The St. Louis Review is your resource to local, national and international faith news. If you are not a parish subscriber, contact the parish office or simply leave a contribution in the basket with your request to receive the St. Louis Review. The cost for a one year subscription is $30 for 50 issues. Thank you for your many contributions to our faith community of time, talent and treasure. Refrain

The musical notation is written on three staves in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is simple and repetitive. The lyrics are: "Come to the feast of heav-en and earth! Come to the ta-ble of plen - ty! God will pro-vide for all that we need, here at the ta - ble of plen - ty." The word "Refrain" is written above the first staff. A double bar line with a "2" above it indicates the end of the piece.

Come to the feast of heav-en and earth! Come to the ta-

SACRED WATER: PRECIOUS GIFT AND CRITICAL CONCERN

Water, the source and sustenance of all life, is becoming a scarce commodity. Pope Francis has underlined this crisis in his encyclical, Laudato Si'.

A committee of the Sisters of Mercy and Mercy Associates, chaired by Sr. Carolyn McWatters, will present a day of reflection on the sacredness of water, the global water crisis, and our call to respond. It will be held on Saturday, February 17, from 9:00 am -3:00 pm at Mercy Center in Frontenac. An afternoon panel will include Sarah Smith, Director of Mercy Partnership Fund, the socially responsible investment fund of the Sisters of Mercy; Rick Pautler, member of St Peter's Parish who works with Water Mission, a non-profit clean water charity; and Vance Moore, President of Business Integration for Mercy Health System.

All are invited! The cost of the day is $40 (includes lunch). Registration is due by February 10. Please register online at mercycenterstl.org.

SAVE THE DATE FOR XAVIER DAYS

Our sixth Annual Parish Celebration, Xavier Days, will be held at College Church on February 9 & 10. Both days are unique and all parishioners are welcome!

Our opening celebration will be on Friday, Feb. 9 from 6:00 - 8:00 pm in the Xavier Ballroom. There will be hearty appetizers, wine, beer and soda. The 2017 Bronsgeest Award will be presented to Mary McDevitt for her dedicated service to College Church. It is a great opportunity to relax and meet other members of our parish community.

Saturday, Feb. 10 is a Parish Reflection Morning in the Ballroom. The presenter is our Associate Pastor Fr. Jason Brauninger, SJ. Breakfast sandwiches will be served.

There is a $10 per person fee for the Friday celebration and a $5 fee for Saturday.

REGISTRATION FOR XAVIER DAYS Deadline: Thursday, February 1

Register by mail to 3628 Lindell Blvd, St. Louis, MO 63108; or drop completed registration form in the collection basket before the deadline. A $10 fee is required for Friday and $5.00 for Saturday with your reservation. The reservation form is available on our website sfxstl.org.

No reservation will be accepted without a deposit!
Make checks payable to College Church.

BICENTENNIAL LECTURE SERIES OPENS FEBRUARY 26*With Jesuit Thibodeaux Speaking on Discernment

The Saint Louis University Bicentennial Lecture Series, "The Jesuit Influence in American Spirituality, Education and Society," will open the 2018 bicentennial year with a presentation by Mark Thibodeaux, SJ. "Discerning Our Role in Creating a Society of Justice and Love" will be held Monday, Feb. 26, 7-8:30 pm at St. Francis Xavier College Church, Grand and Lindell boulevards.

Thibodeaux is novice director for the Central Southern Province of the Society of Jesus in Grand Couteau, La. He has served on the board of directors for Company magazine, a national Jesuit magazine. A former high school teacher, counselor, retreat director and spiritual director, he has drawn from his wealth of experience and is author of four books on prayer, including Armchair Mystic: Easing into Contemplative Prayer, and God's Voice Within, The Ignatian Way to Discover God's Will. The native Louisianan holds degrees in psychology and theology from Loyola University New Orleans and Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The series lectures are held on Mondays, 7-8:30 pm in College Church. Other lectures in the series are: April 16, Lessons from Pope Francis on American Politics and Civic Life, with Matt Malone, SJ, editor-in-Chief of America Magazine; September 24, Reimagining Health Care: Ignatian Insights for Achieving the Greater Good with Michael Rozier, SJ, a researcher and practitioner of health policy and public health ethics; and November 5: Jesuit Education: Do We Need a New Paradigm?, with Michael Garanzini, SJ, Secretary of Higher Education, Society of Jesus in Rome, and Visiting Professor of Research in the Graduate School of Education at Fordham University.

The series is sponsored by the Saint Louis University Bicentennial Committee and the Office of Mission and Identity. For more information, contact jesuitmission@slu.edu.

SOCIAL MINISTRY

Hot Stuff 2018

Saturday, February 3, 10:00 am - 1:00 pm

This February, we will again open the ballroom to hundreds of men, women, and children, offering food, clothing, and hospitality.

Here are 3 ways to help:

CLOTHING DONATIONS: The following donations may be dropped off now until Feb. 2 at the Parish Center mail room and labeled "Hot Stuff": socks and underwear, T-shirts, hoodies, sweatshirts, gloves, hats, scarves, heavy pants, winter coats, shoes/boots, and blankets (all for men, women, and children).

FOOD DONATIONS AND VOLUNTEERING: To sign up to bring needed food items or to volunteer (multiple shifts available), please visit the following link (<http://signup.com/go/CKevrfx>) or contact Christine at (314) 977-7309 or christine@sfxstl.org. Thank you for making this event a success!

Brown Sisters Foundation Challenge Grant Achieved!

The Brown Sisters
FOUNDATION

Thanks to the support of parishioners and friends of College Church, we successfully achieved our goal of $20,000 in donations from new donors outside of the parish in 2017. Because we reached this goal, the Brown Sisters Foundation has contributed an additional $10,000 to our Outreach Program for ID and birth certificate assistance.

Here are just a few highlights from our program last year:

- Served 3,441 low income guests
- 42% of guests reported that they had been to prison or jail
- 46% of guests reported that they were experiencing homelessness
- Provided 2,341 Missouri State IDs
- Provided 2,730 birth certificates from any state, of which 970 were for children under 16

None of this would be possible without your ongoing support. Thank you!

Volunteer Opportunity: Concordance Academy Partnership Teams

Concordance Academy provides holistic re-entry services to people leaving prison. Concordance needs volunteers to form "partnership teams" to support program participants and we hope to form a College Church team.

Participating on a partnership team entails working with 5-6 other people to:

- Provide much-needed emotional support, love and encouragement to the participant
- Create a resourceful network to help meet basic needs – ranging from transportation and childcare, to household furnishings and clothing
- Supplement Academy services to help participants achieve goals outlined in their customized life plans and career blueprints
- Foster individual growth through the creation and implementation of a personal project that contributes to the greater good of society

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Lenten Books and Materials

The season of Lent is quickly approaching. Along with our parish book for Lent, many people find it helpful to have a booklet with daily reflections. Starting next Sunday, Jan 28, reflection materials will be available in the Lower Hall after the Sunday morning masses. These include: the Little Black Book with a scripture verse and a reflection on a person, event or practice that invites us to deeper faith; Sacred Space from the Irish Jesuits with a line from one of the readings of the day and a reflection on it; and many other booklets. Join us in the lower hall next week.

What Do Francis of Assisi and Francis of Buenos Aires Have in Common? A "Franciscan" Perspective on the Common Good

Father Michael Perry, Minister General of the Order of Friars Minor, will present a lecture on Tuesday, Jan. 30 at 7:00 pm. It will be held at Knight's Hall Emerson Auditorium at Washington University and is sponsored by John Danforth Center on Religion and Politics. Fr. Perry is a native of Indianapolis and has served as a missionary in the Congo. For more information see: <http://rap.wustl.edu> or call 314-935-9345.

Ignatian Spirituality Lecture Series

Falling in Love ... Finding God

7:30 pm Wednesday, Jan. 24, 2018, Doors open at 7:00 pm

Si Commons, St Louis University High School (4970 Oakland Ave)

College Church Parishioners Bridget Brennan and Jerry Shen will present the January White House Retreat lecture highlighting the topics and principles from their new book, Falling in Love ... Finding God. They will explore insights from the Spiritual Exercises that can enhance our marriage relationships.

This is a free event but registration is required. Register at: www.whretreat.org/speaker-series

Parish Lenten Book - Signs: Seven Words of Hope, by Jean Vanier

Jean Vanier founded the first L'Arche community over fifty years ago. These are now part of a worldwide network of small group homes where people with learning disabilities share their life with others who help each other live in freedom and dignity. A number of our parishioners are actively involved in three L'Arche homes in the St. Louis area.

Out of the wisdom Vanier brings from his experience at L'Arche, he suggests seven paths of hope for both our own personal transformation, and a transformation of our often ailing Church: a path from humiliation to humility; from conformity to conscience; from exclusion to encounter; from power to authority; from isolation to community; from strength to vulnerability; from secret to mystery. With seven short chapters full of wisdom and experience, it is a perfect book for reflection during Lent.

The book will be on sale in the back of the church January 21 after both Sunday Masses for $10.00, and be available for purchase in the ballroom in the following weeks. Books may also be purchased on Amazon, and e-book versions may be purchased on Amazon and ibooks.

Read the book on your own or, if you wish to join a small discussion group or online group, please provide contact information to the booksellers, or email Carol Joselyn at joselyn66@gmail.com, or call her at (515) 570-3736.

“I’m Spiritual But Not Religious”

Speaker: Dr. Daniel Finucane, PhD

Sunday, January 28
SFX Ballroom
9:15 - 10:15 am

Why the question these days? Do we need to choose between the spiritual and the religious? Might one lead to the other? Come hear Dr. Finucane discuss the relationship between the two. Dr. Daniel Finucane is an Associate Professor of Systematic Theology in the Department of Theological Studies at Saint Louis University. He and his wife Laura and their two sons are long time parishioners at College Church.

PARISH MEN’S WHITE HOUSE RETREAT

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola is the manual for discerning how God is calling us to follow Him. The White House Jesuit Retreat Center in south St. Louis County applies the Spiritual Exercises to our daily lives to develop our faith, deepen our peace and increase our gratitude. You are personally invited to prayerfully consider joining a group of men from our parish to make a retreat at the “White House”, Feb. 8 - 11. The beauty of the natural setting, the prayer and liturgies and the comfort of the accommodations combine to make this a spiritually renewing and rewarding experience. Reservations can be made online at www.whretreat.org or please call Dave Schnelt (314-791-0227), John Webster (636-394-2770), John Hartung (314-918-1950) or Deacon Jim Griffard (314-619-5700).
