FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We live in extraordinary times. The 175th anniversary of the founding of St. Francis Xavier (College) Church concludes and less than two months later is the kick-off for the bicentennial of Saint Louis University. Yesterday, Sept. 23, that celebration began with a Mass of thanksgiving under the Arch. The party never stops!

I am fond of reminding everyone that SLU is our founding institution. The parish grew out of the college chapel on campus. What you may not know, however, is the original Saint Louis College was founded by Bishop Dubourg rather than the Jesuits. We arrived five years later, and it was only in 1828 that the bishop turned the school over to us. Here is a fun fact: the total population of St. Louis in 1820 was 10,049. That is less than the student enrollment at SLU today. A great deal can change over 200 years.

I know that many of you, like me, are SLU alums. My first experience of College Church was as an undergrad here in the late 1980's. In some ways the school is unrecognizable from those days. What remains constant is a dedication to the intellectual, spiritual, and personal formation of young men and women. The need for such an education is as pressing now as when St. Louis was the frontier.

LIVING THE MAGIS: A CALL TO FAITH AND FORMATION

Father Dan White, SJ

October 8 in the SFX Ballroom
9:15-10:15 am

Join us as Fr. Dan leads a discussion on how we can live better, bolder and more loving. Magis is a uniquely Jesuit concept of always striving to be the best that we can be: always seeking to grow in learning, in faith and in service to others.

All are welcome to attend!!

FRONT DESK HELP NEEDED

We're looking for some help to cover a few shifts at our Parish Center front desk or occasional help with mailings. If your schedule allows and you would be interested in helping, please contact Mary Beth Erickson at 314-977-7304.

"What is Permaculture and Why Should I Care?" Michelle Salois, RSM, Certified Permaculture Designer October 15, 2017 ~ SFX Ballroom ~ 12 noon

Michelle is passionate about healing human beings and healing the earth. She began her professional career as an RN and now works full time as a family therapist and Clinical Social Worker at Mercy Professional Services. Her personal reading and passion have focused on the increasing problems of human global impact on the health of air, water, soil and species extinction. These declines were troubling her deeply. When Michelle discovered the field of Permaculture and all the solutions it provides, she knew she had to learn it and share it! She graduated in May 2015 from the annual online Permaculture Design Course from Geoff Lawton. She offers her weekends to work on educating the public and creating designs in urban and suburban settings for individual households or businesses and through offering designs for 'sale' at non-profits fundraisers.

SAVE THE DATE Panel on Anti-Racism and Relationship Building in our North City Deanery October 22, 2017 ~ SFX Ballroom ~ 12-1:30pm

COLLEGE CHURCH SEMINARS

Sundays 9:15-10:15

Adult Faith Room

Beginning Oct 1

Topics will include:

Organization of biblical Psalms;
 Characteristics of biblical poetry; Various types of psalms;
 Public and private use of psalms in biblical history; Christian understanding and use of Psalms; Close analysis of many psalms.

Questions on prayer: Is the god atheists don't believe in really the true God?
 If we pray and get no response, then what? Does God need praise?
 What about our angry, exasperation, despairing prayers?

Contact: Frank at nicholfw@slu.edu for more information. A Bible is desirable but not essential.

NEWMAN SYMPOSIUM

The 8th Annual Newman Symposium is Oct. 17 at Fontbonne University. Archbishop Carlson will celebrate Vespers and Dr. Grant Kaplan of SLU will present "Reflecting on the Reformation in Catholic Culture and Theology." The Symposium is 4 -7 pm in the Doerr Chapel. It is free and open to the public.

LIGHTWORKS: AN EXPERIENCE OF IGNATIAN PRAYER

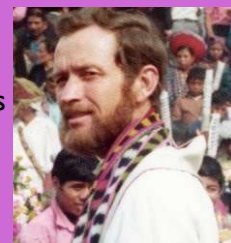

LIGHTWORKS is a "light form of work," exercises for the spirit. These exercises of prayer and reflection build our relationship with God and help us become more aware of God's presence in our lives. In weekly group sessions participants are given scripture passages or reflections from the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius to pray over each week. These invite us into conversation with God about our lives. During the weekly session, there is sharing about these passages and a presentation from a facilitator. There are 15 weekly sessions with seven before Thanksgiving and eight in the new year. LIGHTWORKS will be offered at College Church on Sundays from 12:00 - 2:00 pm, beginning Oct. 1.

Flyers are available at the doorways of the church. For more information or to register, please contact Joseph Milner at 314-977-7305 or joseph.milner@slu.edu

BLESSED STANLEY ROTHER

On Sept. 23, Fr. Stanley Rother, a priest and farmer from Okarche, Oklahoma, was beatified. He was a priest of the Oklahoma City Archdiocese. He trusted God throughout his life even when things seemed impossible. While in the seminary, he had a very difficult time with Latin and was asked to leave. He was accepted at another seminary and ordained in 1963. He later learned Spanish, and became fluent in the challenging Tz'utujil language of the Mayan people. He volunteered to serve in the diocesan mission in Guatemala. He became the pastor and only priest to 25,000 parishioners at St. James the Apostle parish. He dedicated himself to the people and won their trust as he worked in the fields with them, built a clinic and repaired machinery. In the late 1970's, he and his parishioners were caught in an undeclared civil war. Resentment against social injustice turned to resistance, and government repression developed. He began to walk the roads in the area searching for the bodies of villagers who had disappeared. His name appeared on one of the death lists and he returned to Oklahoma in January 1981 but found it unbearable to be away from the people. He said a "shepherd cannot run" and returned to Guatemala. On July 28, 1981, gunmen tried to kidnap him. When he resisted, he was shot. The words of Pope Francis can truly be applied to him. He was a shepherd who smelled like his sheep.

Parishioner Sandy Spencer knew Fr. Rother as she worked in a neighboring parish at the same time. On Oct. 29 after the 8:00 and 10:30 masses in the ballroom, she will share about Fr. Rother and the historical context which led to his murder.

Blessed Stanley, Pray for us!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteers are needed prior to the 8 a.m. Mass and after the 10:30 Mass to put out and take down the no parking sandwich board sign on sidewalk in front of the church. It is somewhat heavy, so would need folks who could comfortably carry it from the closet near the lower level elevator to the curb. This helps handicapped parishioners have a reliable drop off place. Please contact Jane Conrad at 314-276-2313 or conradpjif@aol.com

THE ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION'S FAITH OUTREACH INITIATIVE AND SFX PASTORAL CARE MINISTRY

St. Louis University's Health Resource Center and the Geriatric Education Center are offering a FREE Comprehensive Geriatric Assessment clinic for people 65 years of age or older. This clinic is held the first Thursday of each month at the Health Resource Center, 1408 North Kingshighway, #213.

A comprehensive cognitive and physical assessment is more extensive than a screening appointment. Over a two hour visit (approximate), the team will conduct the following assessments: medical, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, nutrition, and social services.

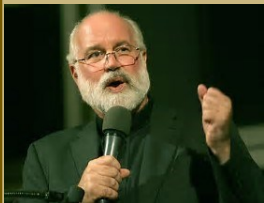

To schedule an appointment please contact the SLU Geriatric Division Office at 314-977-8462.
