FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Thursday is the commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, commonly known as All Soul's Day. This is the perfect example of how the Church's prayer drives the Church's theology. Very early in our history Christians were offering prayers on behalf of those who had died. The practice was borrowed from the wider Greco-Roman culture which commemorated the deceased with libations and food at their tomb.

As happened often, Christians adapted these practices in light of their faith in Jesus Christ. The faithful gathered in cemeteries to celebrate the Eucharist. Instead of pagan lamentations they sang hymns and psalms of hope. The Church viewed the universal human experience of death and grief through the lens of faith in the Risen Lord.

College Church will gather this week to do the same. We acknowledge loss and sorrow, but profess our faith in our participation in Christ's life. The prayer of commendation from the funeral liturgy captures our belief: Into your hands, Father of mercies, we commend our loved one in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ, they will rise with him on the last day. It is that sure and certain hope that guides our prayers for all the faithful departed.

A comprehensive cognitive and physical assessment is more extensive than a screening appointment. Over a two hour visit (approximate), the team will conduct the following assessments: medical, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, nutrition, and social services.

To schedule an appointment please contact the SLU Geriatric Division Office at 314-977-8462.

ALZHEIMER'S/DEMENTIA – RESOURCES WHEN YOU NEED THEM

 Sunday, November 12, 9:15-10:15 am ~ SFX Ballroom

Stacy leads the staff and volunteer team who serve over 66,000 families in 96 counties in Missouri and western Illinois. There will be time for questions and answers for those attending.

BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO MOURN GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Each year, the church remembers all who have died and gone before us during the month of November. While there is a book to remember the departed at the shrine of St. Joseph throughout the year, it has been moved to near the baptismal font this weekend, to make it more prominent and easier to inscribe the names of your loved ones as you enter or depart from the church. You are invited to write the names of any of your family and friends who have died, particularly those who have died during the past year. During November, the book will be brought forward and placed near the altar. The names of those listed in the book will be remembered in our prayers at the weekend liturgies. Please take a moment to inscribe these names today in our parish book of remembrance.

WHY I JOINED. I HOPE YOU WILL TOO!

When I first started coming to College Church, I was searching. Searching for ways to feel connected to my faith, ways to actually have a prayer life, ways to actually live out what I heard at Mass beyond that Sunday morning. I have gone from "checking the box" on Sunday morning, to accepting and owning my faith formation. I'm not perfect, but I now feel I have the tools to grow closer to God. Is this something you can relate to? Something you'd like to learn more about? Something you might like to be a part of? I am a member of the Adult Faith Formation Commission. If you would like to learn more about what Adult Faith Formation has to offer at College Church, or become involved in the Commission please contact me, Laura Greiner at momgreiner@me.com or Joe Milner at Joseph.Milner@slu.edu

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Rite of Acceptance into the Catechumenate and Welcome of Baptized Christians

On Nov. 5 at the 10:30 am Eucharist, we will welcome individuals who wish to prepare for Christian Initiation or reception into full communion with the Catholic Church. Those who are not baptized become catechumens through their expression of desire for faith and baptism. They will celebrate the three sacraments of initiation, baptism, confirmation and Eucharist. Those who are baptized in other churches or who were baptized as infants in the Catholic church become candidates as they prepare for confirmation and the Eucharist. The rite which we celebrate invites them to express their desire and state their intent to live as disciples of Jesus. They are accompanied by sponsors who represent the parish community in supporting and encouraging them in their journey to know and love God. The whole assembly is asked to express their support with prayer and concern for them during the coming months. Please pray for them and greet them when you see them.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMUNITY

Interested in extending your experience of the Spiritual Exercises or wanting to deepen your faith and Ignatian Spirituality? Then consider answering the Call of Christian Life Community (CLC). Come experience for yourself that call, that is, a sense of belonging to something more than a prayer group or bible study. Gatherings include prayer, silence, scripture, and reflection, and so much more, followed by socializing. There is still time to join a group this year. Contact Ann Padberg at annpadberg@charter.net or 314-696-9610.

COLLEGE CHURCH SEMINARS

Each Sunday 9:15-10:15
Adult Faith Room

Topics will include:

Organization of biblical Psalms; Characteristics of biblical poetry; Various types of psalms; Public and private use of psalms in biblical history; Christian understanding and use of Psalms; Close analysis of many psalms.

Questions on prayer: Is the god atheists don't believe in really the true God? If we pray and get no response, then what? Does God need praise?

What about our angry, exasperation, despairing prayers?

Contact: Frank at nicholfw@slu.edu for more information. A Bible is desirable but not essential.

BLESSED STANLEY ROTHER

On Sept. 23, Fr. Stanley Rother, a priest and farmer from Okarche, Oklahoma, was beatified. His name appeared on one of the death lists and he returned to Oklahoma in January of 1981 but found it unbearable to be away from the people. He said that a "shepherd cannot run." He returned to Guatemala. On July 28, 1981, gunmen tried to kidnap him. When he resisted, he was shot. The words of Pope Francis can truly be applied to him. He was a shepherd who smelled like his sheep.

Parishioner Sandy Spencer knew Fr. Rother as she worked in a neighboring parish in Guatemala at the same time. TODAY, Oct. 29 after the 8:00 Mass in the ballroom, she will share about Fr. Rother and the historical context which led to his murder. She will repeat the presentation after the 10:30 mass on Nov. 12.

Blessed Stanley, Pray for us!

SLU PARKING UPDATES

RE CONNECTION SPEAKER SERIES
"CAN CATHOLICS FIND COMMON GROUND?"

Dr. Julie Hanlon Rubio, PhD – Professor of Christian Ethics – Saint Louis University
Sunday, Nov. 19 in the Ballroom 9:15 - 10:15 am

In the current political climate, common ground can seem impossible to find. Catholics, like everyone else, are more divided than ever. Some feel compelled not to "reach across the aisle" but to stand and witness to truth. Yet many are tired of polarization and gridlock. What resources does the Catholic tradition offer for conversation that gets us beyond the current impasse?

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Please remember in your prayers Diane Mees, mother of Janet Mees-Reinert and Ann Garrido of our parish who died Oct. 20. May she and all the departed share in the peace and joy of God's presence forever.

What to Expect:

Churches that hosted Mass Mobs throughout the St. Louis Archdiocese have reported increases in attendance by several hundred people. Ancillary parking lots will be open and on-street parking is encouraged. Church tours will be provided after Mass with a small reception to follow in the Parish Hall.

How to Help:

Get the word out – We want Mass Mob XV to be one for the record books. Invite your family, friends and neighbors to attend mass with you on Nov. 12. Know any alumni of St. Anthony's? Invite them to attend, too!
