FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK

Stewardship Sunday is today. It is a great opportunity to consider the many, many ways that we can use the gifts God has given us. In fact, I might argue that we should really call this Gratitude Sunday because stewardship can only flow from a deep sense of all that we have received from our God.

Now, don’t get me wrong. There are great needs here at College Church. We will hear today about some of the financial challenges we face. It is also important to keep in mind how we can be generous with our talents and time, too. It takes committed, selfless parishioners to maintain and expand the good works taking place here. Happily, we have those in abundance.

It is good, though, to reflect upon the “why” of stewardship, and not just the “how”. Consider the thousands of generous College Church parishioners who came before us. Last Sunday at the 8am liturgy the east-facing rose window was spectacular in the morning sun. It was installed in the height of the Great Depression to bring beauty to the church, and we have the privilege of enjoying the window nearly 100 years later.

Consider as well all those who will come after us. The future generations who will enjoy the fruits of our generosity. We are called to be stewards for the future, and not just of our magnificent church but of the mission. Gratitude should compel us to consider our role in passing on what we have received.

Welcome Fr. Tom Cwik, S.J.

Fr. Tom Cwik, S.J. is our new associate pastor. He was ordained in 2000 and is a novice classmate of Fr. Dan. Originally from Auburn, Illinois, he has most recently served as the pastor at St. Ignatius Loyola parish in Denver. He is very happy to be here with us and we’re happy to have him at the College Church!

On October 14, Oscar Romero, former archbishop of El Salvador, will be canonized. He was murdered while saying mass because he advocated for the poor and oppressed. Timothy McMahon, SJ, former provincial of the Jesuits at 9:15 am on Sunday in the ball room, entitled “Oscar Romero: Archbishop with an Attitude”.

Other presentations include:

Monday, Oct 8, 7:00 pm, lecture by Elizabeth Gandolfo, Ph.D., The Prophetic Mission of the Church in a Time of Great Suffering , Anheuser-Busch Auditorium, Chaifetz School of Business

Thursday, Oct. 11, 5:30 pm, free showing of the film, Monsenor: The Last Journey of Oscar Romero, Moolah Theatre

The Celebration will conclude with a pilgrimage on Oct 14 at 12:30 pm from the clock tower on the SLU campus to the Cathedral Basilica for a 2:30 pm mass celebrated by Bishop Rivituso and with Fr. McMahon, SJ preaching. A full schedule of events and further details on each can be found at:

We will also launch a final push toward the November mid-terms and getting a win on our issues: Amendment I (CLEAN) and Prop B (RUM). Join us on Sunday, October 7, 3:00 pm-4:30 pm at one of the four locations above. We'll hear from our school district administrators and the police on how our children are being treated in each district.

College Church Liturgy Commission

One of the important groups operating in the parish is the Liturgy Commission. It seeks to provide liturgical worship in keeping with the church's liturgical guidelines, with a special eye toward helping all parishioners achieve the "full, conscious and active participation" called for by Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of Vatican II. The Commission has a 4-fold purpose:

1. Assessing the needs of the worshipping community, and helping determine appropriate responses to those needs
2. Ensuring the recruitment, training and development of competent liturgical ministers (acolytes, cantors, lectors, ushers, Ministers of Holy Communion, crossbearers, musicians, Art & Environment members, and Linens Keepers)
3. Evaluating liturgical worship and ministers on a regular basis
4. Engaging in ongoing education of liturgical documents and resources

After a 10-month hiatus, the commission has been re-activated with a mix of former and new members, listed here with the mass each ordinarily attends:

Anita Barni (10:30), Sherri Coleman, FSM (5:30), Thelma Mamah (10:30), Sue Martin (5:30, 10:30), Paul Nagel (8:00), Cliff Pittman (5:30) Sean Powers (8:00), Theresa Romer (8:00), Sr Carolyn McWatters, Fr Dan White, S.J. (ex-officio)

Our commission seeks to be available to the members of the parish. Please do not hesitate to contact any of them with your ideas, questions, and/or concerns. Thank you!

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Living the Christian Life: Once you are 'initiated,' then what?

We watched in wonder as they were baptized. They have spent months reading, reflecting on their lives, praying and developing a relationship with God so that they could be dynamic Christians.

Now how do they (and we wonder if we too) more fully integrate this discipleship into our lives in an ongoing way? "A process known as mystogological reflection is one way. . . When you take a line from the Sunday scriptures or the homily and reflect on how you can better live it, you are doing a mystogological reflection. Want some help with this?

The parish offers a weekly reflection group that meets from 9:30-10:20 am each Sunday in the St. Ignatius Room in the Pastoral Center, beginning September 16. No registration necessary, just join whenever you can.

For information, contact Carla Mae Streeter, OP at streeter@slu.edu or 314-256-8882.
