THE SPRINKLING RITE

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) encourages the use of a sprinkling rite during the Sundays of the Easter season. As a Church we weekly renew our own baptismal promises, recalling that it was through the waters of baptism that we became members of Christ's Body and were incorporated into his risen life. So when we are sprinkled each Sunday, let us exult in the new life we have been given through the abundance of God's grace!

There will be plenty of time for reflection and enjoying the beautiful grounds of the Toddhall retreat center.

*Our facilitator, Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson, will share his passion for narrative theology to connect life stories with The Story of the birth, life, death and resurrection of Jesus. ## SOCIAL MINISTRY

Give STL Day: Wednesday, May 2nd

College Church's Outreach Program is again participating in Give STL Day, an online day of giving to benefit nonprofits serving the St. Louis region. Our Outreach Program consistently provides assistance with obtaining Missouri State ID cards and birth certificates from any state to low income individuals. These documents are necessary for access to housing, employment, education, social services, and a host of other resources. We receive referrals from over 120 local nonprofits, schools, and governmental agencies and serve as a crucial gateway to services needed to transition out of poverty. 100% of donations made on Give STL Day will go directly to the cost of documents for people with low incomes and limited resources.

Please help us spread the word to donate to the "College Church ID and birth certificate program" on Give STL Day! To donate on May 2nd, please visit

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

LIVING THE CHRISTIAN LIFE MYTAGOGICALLY

During the Easter Vigil, six people celebrated sacraments of initiation. The reception of the sacraments was not a completion for them but a commitment to and an entrance into a way of life. They have spent months reading, reflecting on their lives, praying and developing a relationship with God so that they could be dynamic Christians. Now they seek to more fully integrate this discipleship into their lives through reflecting on Christ's action within them through the sacraments, reflecting on the weekly Gospels and participating in the Eucharist. This process is known as mystagogical reflection. Mystagogy comes the Greek word for reflection on the mysteries as the sacraments were originally called. It is a model for growth for all followers of Jesus. As we share in the Eucharist each week, we are invited to let the Gospels connect our lives, our decisions and our actions more closely to Jesus and through the reception of the Eucharist to become more fully the Body of Christ living and active today. When you take a line from the Sunday scriptures or the homily and reflect on how you can better live it, you are doing a mystagogical reflection. When you reflect upon having received Christ in the Eucharist and ask, "How should I live now?", you are doing a mystagogical reflection.

The parish also offers a weekly reflection group between the Sunday morning masses to help people come to know Jesus better and connect the scriptures with their lives. It meets at 9:30 each Sunday. For more information, contact Carla Mae Streeter, OP (Coordinator) at streeter@slu.edu or 314-256-8882.

JUST LISTENING: LISTENING AS THE ULTIMATE ACT OF JUSTICE

As our communities and planet continue suffering from injustice, hate, and disease, we are now experiencing intense political divisiveness and strained public discourse. Whether in our local community of St. Louis or on the national and global political stage, civil discourse is necessary for peacemaking and community building. For effective discourse, listening — deep listening — is required. In times of fear and anxiety, listening can again become an effective tool. That is why we are pleased to offer this workshop on listening as the ultimate act of justice.

Saturday, May 12

Workshop Presenter: Sharon Browning. Sharon provides JUST Listening consultation and training to a wide range of organizations. She is an attorney, former Executive Director of Philadelphia VIP, the hub of pro bono legal services in Philadelphia, and also taught for fifteen years in the Sociology Department at Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia. She is a trained mediator, as well as a retreat facilitator, spiritual guide and teacher, focusing on the needs of marginalized individuals and groups. To learn more about this program: <https://justlistening.net>

Come learn new skills for the type of deep listening which is required for effective discourse. Mercy Conference and Retreat Center, 2039 N. Geyer Rd., 9:00 am - 1:00 pm. This workshop is free of charge thanks to sponsorship from the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas, South Central Community Justice Office. Seating is limited and registration is required.
