FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The first reading throughout the Easter season is from the Acts of the Apostles. It is a unique creation. Most importantly, it is the companion piece to the Gospel of Luke. The same author wrote the Gospel and Acts as a single, two-part work. Luke is the only Evangelist of the four to do so. This also makes him the source of more New Testament material than any other author, including St. Paul.

Luke demonstrates the story of Jesus Christ cannot be told without the story of the beginnings of His Church. Acts of the Apostles reveals the earliest days of the Christian community. This is not so much a strict history but a faith narrative focused on theological and pastoral teaching rather than a consideration of people and events. This is salvation history that stresses the workings of the Holy Spirit in the first believers.

The expansion of the Christian community, with accompanying graces and struggles, is the content of the narrative. Underlying this account is the universal nature of Christ that extends far beyond tribe, region or ethnicity.

We are the latest chapter in the proclamation of the Good News. It did not begin with us nor does it end with us, yet we play a vital part in our own particular time and setting. The Church, God's faithful people filled with the Holy Spirit, continues on pilgrimage.

THE SPRINKLING RITE

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) encourages the use of a sprinkling rite during the Sundays of the Easter season. As a Church we weekly renew our own baptismal promises, recalling that it was through the waters of baptism that we became members of Christ's Body and were incorporated into his risen life. So when we are sprinkled each Sunday, let us exult in the new life we have been given through the abundance of God's grace!

This Tuesday, April 10, at 5:30 pm in the Parish Center we will have ESL trainers available to help those interested in techniques of teaching conversational English to Turkish refugee women who have fled the Erdogan persecution. They will also provide an introduction to their training for volunteers to teach immigrant women. If you would like more information on either event, contact carolyn.j.vaughan@gmail.com and let her know of your interest.

Welcoming Dinner Hosts

In our efforts to establish relationships with our Turkish-Muslim neighbors, we would like to invite parishioners to host a dinner with them. These will be small gatherings so people can get to know each other and learn about each other’s culture and faiths. The possible dates for the dinners are: April 20, 21, 22, 28, 29; May 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13. ## JUST LISTENING: LISTENING AS THE ULTIMATE ACT OF JUSTICE

As our communities and planet continue suffering from injustice, hate, and disease, we are now experiencing intense political divisiveness and strained public discourse. Whether in our local community of St. Louis or on the national and global political stage, civil discourse is necessary for peacemaking and community building. For effective discourse, listening – deep listening – is required. In times of fear and anxiety, listening can again become an effective tool. That is why we are pleased to offer this workshop on listening as the ultimate act of justice.

Saturday, May 12

Workshop Presenter: Sharon Browning. Sharon provides JUST Listening consultation and training to a wide range of organizations. She is an attorney, former Executive Director of Philadelphia VIP, the hub of pro bono legal services in Philadelphia, and also taught for fifteen years in the Sociology Department at Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia. She is a trained mediator, as well as a retreat facilitator, spiritual guide and teacher, focusing on the needs of marginalized individuals and groups. To learn more about this program: <https://justlistening.net>

Come learn new skills for the type of deep listening which is required for effective discourse. Mercy Conference and Retreat Center, 2039 N. Geyer Rd., 9:00 am -1:00 pm. This workshop is free of charge thanks to sponsorship from the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas, South Central Community Justice Office. Seating is limited and registration is required.
