FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We live in extraordinary times. The 175th anniversary of the founding of St. Francis Xavier (College) Church concludes and less than two months later is the kick-off for the bicentennial of Saint Louis University. Yesterday, Sept. 23, that celebration began with a Mass of thanksgiving under the Arch. The party never stops!

I am fond of reminding everyone that SLU is our founding institution. The parish grew out of the college chapel on campus. What you may not know, however, is the original Saint Louis College was founded by Bishop Dubourg rather than the Jesuits. We arrived five years later, and it was only in 1828 that the bishop turned the school over to us. Here is a fun fact: the total population of St. Louis in 1820 was 10,049. That is less than the student enrollment at SLU today. A great deal can change over 200 years.

I know that many of you, like me, are SLU alums. My first experience of College Church was as an undergrad here in the late 1980's. In some ways the school is unrecognizable from those days. What remains constant is a dedication to the intellectual, spiritual, and personal formation of young men and women. The need for such an education is as pressing now as when St. Louis was the frontier.

INTERESTED IN LEARNING ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

If you would like to learn about the Catholic Church, its beliefs and practices, you are invited to come to our inquiry sessions. These offer an opportunity to ask questions about Catholic beliefs and practices. They are informal and focus on issues the participants deem important. If you are interested in learning more, please contact Joseph Milner, 314-977-7305 or joseph.milner@slu.edu

WHO ARE THE PEOPLE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD?

Join us on Sunday, Oct. 1 after both the 8:00 and 10:30 am Masses in the Ballroom for a special Donut Sunday by zip code. Come meet other parishioners who live in your neighborhood. Reservations aren't necessary, just come to the ballroom after Mass.

FRONT DESK HELP NEEDED

We're looking for some help to cover a few shifts at our Parish Center front desk or occasional help with mailings. If your schedule allows and you would be interested in helping, please contact Mary Beth Erickson at 314-977-7304.

Xavier Youth Group – Eighth Grade and High School Students

Welcome back from summer break! Now that we are getting back into the swing of things with school, we would like to invite you to join our Youth Group program here at College Church. All 8th-12th graders are invited! We gather once a month for Mass, lunch, fun and games, and service – all in the name of growing in faith and friendship.

Our first Mass and meeting is Oct. 1 at 10:30 am in the Lower Chapel. All are invited to bring their gifts of music, lecturing, or altar serving. Afterwards we will gather to meet the Youth Leaders and share food, faith, and fellowship. We will have a meeting for parents the same day from 9:30 – 10:15 am in the Lower Adult Faith Room. For more information, contact Rebecca or Sam at youthmin@slu.edu.

When: Two identical performances on Saturday, October 14th from 7-9pm (6:15pm reception) OR Sunday, October 15th from 7-9pm (6:15 reception)

Where: Tegeler Hall's Carlo Auditorium on Saint Louis University's campus (SE corner of Grand & Lindell)
Information on parking and any other logistical details will be sent by email beforehand

RSVP: Please click the following link to RSVP for a showing of the "Growing Up Catholic" reader's theater production: <https://tinyurl.com/ybdmhaqc> OR contact Christine at 977-7309 or dragonettecm@slu.edu.

A $5 donation at the door to our group's collaborative anti-racism efforts is appreciated.

"What is Permaculture and why should I care?" Michelle Salois, RSM, Certified Permaculture Designer October 15, 2017 ~ SFX Ballroom ~ 12 noon

Michelle is passionate about healing human beings and Healing the Earth. She began her professional career as an RN and now works full time as a family therapist and Clinical Social Worker at Mercy Professional Services. Her personal reading and passion have focused on the increasing problems of human global impact on the health of air, water, soil and species extinction: these declines were troubling her deeply. When she discovered the field of Permaculture and all the solutions it provides, she knew she had to learn it and share it! She took the annual online Permaculture Design Course from Geoff Lawton and graduated in May of 2015. She offers her weekends to work on educating the public and creating designs in urban and suburban settings for individual households or businesses and through offering designs for 'sale' at non-profits fundraisers.

SEASON OF CREATION HYMNS

Our Season of Creation hymn today sings of God’s mercy in gifting us with such a spectacular world, then sadly admits to our complicity in causing great damage to our Earth through our carelessness and greed. But our faith tells us that forgiveness and conversion are always possible, and that by opening ourselves to God’s grace, we can be builders of a new Creation of justice and peace for all living beings. What can I do to make a positive difference for Earth? You might check out this website - catholicclimatecovenant.org - for ideas and resources.

CARDINAL RIGALI SERVICE AWARD

Joyce Miller, our receptionist, will receive the Cardinal Rigali Service Award at a celebration on Oct. 3 at the Cardinal Rigali Center. This award is presented annually to archdiocesan employees who exhibit selfless devotion to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in parishes, schools and agencies throughout the Archdiocese.

Joyce is at the helm of all who call or come to the College Church. She answers the phone and greets our guests. She is extremely knowledgeable about the parish, policies and procedures. She distributes mail to our homeless guests who use the church to receive their mail or state id’s. She knows the people who come regularly for mail or sandwiches and treats them with great kindness and respect. Joyce is also responsible for welcoming our new parishioners and recording sacramental records. We would be lost without Joyce at our front desk! Please offer Joyce your congratulations!

COLLEGE CHURCH SEMINARS

Sundays 9:15-10:15

Adult Faith Room

Beginning Oct 1

Topics will include:

Organization of biblical Psalms;

Characteristics of biblical poetry; Various types of psalms; Public and private use of psalms in biblical history; Christian understanding and use of Psalms; Close analysis of many psalms.

Questions on prayer: Is the god atheists don’t believe in really the true God? If we pray and get no response, then what? Does God need praise?

What about our angry, exasperation, despairing prayers?

Contact: Frank at nicholfw@slu.edu for more information. A Bible is desirable but not essential.

ATTENTION LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Sister Carolyn will be out for surgery starting Sept. 25 for at least a month. During that time, if changes in scheduling are needed, please contact Joe Milner at joseph.milner@slu.edu.

BLESSED STANLEY ROTHER

On Sept. 23, Fr. Stanley Rother, a priest and farmer from Okarche, Oklahoma, was beatified. While in the seminary, he had a very difficult time with Latin and was asked to leave. He was accepted at another seminary and ordained in 1963. He later learned Spanish, but also became fluent in the challenging Tz'utujil language of the Mayan people. He volunteered to serve in the diocesan mission in Guatemala where he became pastor and only priest to 25,000 parishioners at St. James the Apostle parish. He won their trust as he worked in the fields with them, built a clinic and repaired machinery. In the late 1970's, he and his parishioners were caught in an undeclared civil war. When resentment against social injustice turned to resistance, government repression developed. He began to walk the roads in the area searching for the bodies of villagers who had disappeared. His name appeared on one of the death lists and he returned to Oklahoma in January 1981 but found it unbearable to be away from the people. He said a "shepherd cannot run" and returned to Guatemala. On July 28, 1981, gunmen tried to kidnap him. When he resisted, he was shot. The words of Pope Francis can truly be applied to him. He was a shepherd who smelled like his sheep.

Parishioner Sandy Spencer knew Fr. Rother as she worked in a neighboring parish at the same time. On Oct 29 after the 8:00 and 10:30 masses in the ballroom, she will share about Fr Rother and the historical context which led to his murder. Prayer cards marking the beatification are at the doorways to the church. Blessed Stanley, Pray for us!

LIGHTWORKS: AN EXPERIENCE OF IGNATIAN PRAYER

LIGHTWORKS is a "light form of work," exercises for the spirit. These exercises of prayer and reflection build our relationship with God and help us become more aware of God's presence in our lives. In weekly group sessions participants are given scripture passages or reflections from the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius to pray over each week. These invite us into conversation with God about our lives. During the weekly session, there is sharing about these passages and a presentation from a facilitator. There are 15 weekly sessions with seven before Thanksgiving and eight in the new year. LIGHTWORKS will be offered at College Church on Sundays from 12:00 - 2:00 pm, beginning Oct. 1.

Flyers are available at the doorways of the church. For more information or to register, please contact Joseph Milner at 314-977-7305 or joseph.milner@slu.edu
