COLLEGE CHURCH 175
 1841-2016

The Intersection of Faith and Science

Supper and Spirituality will begin with an opening prayer, followed by a shared meal, then the presentation (including questions/discussion) from 6:30 to 7:30 pm.

Join parishioners Rebecca Cunningham, Kaitey Sheldon, and Mitch D'Rozario as they share their experience of being faithful Catholics and scientists. They will discuss how faith and science are complimentary rather than contradictory. Whether you are a science nerd or failed high school biology, you will learn something new and exciting.

We are asking if you can help by providing either a sandwich to be shared, bag of chips or dessert. We also need volunteers to set up or clean up. Contact Steve Gilbert at scgilbert@earthlink.net or call 314-280-3923 if you can help. Please contact Joyce Miller, Parish Center receptionist, at 314-977-7300 or email jmill123@slu.edu no later than Thursday, January 19th.

Invitation to the Parish!

What is the one thing everyone here at St. Francis Xavier (College) Church does? We pray together! Our shared prayer is what unites us no matter what mass we attend, or our participation in various ministries. Gathering in prayer is the foundation of who we are. So what can we do to make our shared prayer extend beyond the Sunday liturgy?

I invite all of us, as one faith community, to dedicate ourselves in 2017 to praying daily the Daily Examen of St. Ignatius Loyola. Below you will find information about what this is and how to do it. More than anything else, I believe this simple yet rich form of prayer is a structured way of paying attention. Consider this a spiritual New Year's Resolution, and a fitting way to celebrate our on-going 175th anniversary. I know there are some who have been praying the Examen for many years and others for whom this is brand new. No matter. It is my fervent belief that dedicating ourselves to this prayer will have an enormous impact on our individual and communal spiritual life.

Examen of Consciousness

The Examen prayer is a unique part of Ignatian Spirituality. Ignatius presents it early in the Spiritual Exercises so that individuals may come to recognize God's presence in their lives and God's invitations to discipleship and wholeness. Ignatius fundamentally believed that God is present and at work in the world and in each person's life. There are five steps to the Examen prayer:

1. Place yourself in God's presence. Give thanks for God's great love for you.
2. Pray for the grace to understand how God is acting in your life.
3. Review your day — recall specific moments and your feelings at the time.
4. Reflect on what you did, said, or thought in those instances. Were you drawing closer to God, or further away?
5. Look toward tomorrow — think of how you might collaborate more effectively with God's plan. Be specific, and conclude with the "Our Father."

Metropolitan Congregations United (MCU) Membership

The Parish Council, at its monthly meeting this Saturday, January 21st, will look to approve College Church's membership in Metropolitan Congregations United (MCU). MCU is a faith-based community organizing group that engages congregations in building power, fostering community, and dismantling structural racism in our communities. College Church parishioners have already been involved in a number of MCU efforts, including their "Break the Pipeline" campaign, focused on breaking the "school to prison pipeline" in the St. Louis area, as well as phone banking to oppose Amendment 6 during the election season. Membership in MCU entails paying annual dues, budgeted through Social Ministry, as well as investing time and talent into the group. Through membership, congregations have access to professionally trained community organizers, leadership training, relationships with other faith and value based institutions, and engagement in powerful efforts to achieve justice.

If you have thoughts or feedback to relate to the Parish Council about our parish's membership in MCU, please contact Christine Dragonette at 314-977-7309 or dragonettecm@slu.edu by this Friday, January 20th.
